ACID KILLED MOTHER FOUND BY YOUNG SON

Wife of Dr. Nathan Lentz Takes Her Life and Body Is Discovered by Her Thirteen-Year-Old Son Upon Return from School.

HER THIRD ATTEMPT AT SELF-DESTRUCTION.

Three Months Ago Mrs. Lentz Tried to Die by Poison, But Was Prevented—Cause Was Continued Ill Health.

After two former unsuccessful attempts to take her life, Mrs. Rose Lentz, wife of Dr. Nathan Lentz, swallowed carbolic acid at the family residence, 1301 Carr street, at noon Tuesday, and died shortly after.

Her act is attributed to ill health, to which she has been subject for a long time.

Three months ago the other attempts were made. Theh first was frustrated by S. Mehlman, a friend of the family. He was in her husband's office, when he saw her try to swallow the contents of a bottle. Suspecting her purpose was to kill herself, he knocked the bottle from her hand. It proved to contain carbolic acid.

The next day she swallowed chloroform liniment, but the effects were not serious.

Her husband took her to the Baptist Hospital and kept her there under treatment for some time. She wanted very much to be at ohme with her children and on her promising that she would not again try to kill herself, her husband heeded her pleading and took her home.

Monday she was not well, but Tuesday morning she was more cheerful than usual. The two younger children, Abraham 13, and Samuel 10, went to school, and the elder daughter, Elizabeth, aged 15, also went out.

It was 12:15 o'clock when Abraham returned home. He found his mother in bed, suffering greatly and almost unconscious. He called his father by telephone. Dr. Lentz hurried home and called Dr. M. Friedman of Fourteenth and Wash streets. The two physicians worked hard to save the woman's life, but their efforts were in vain. Mrs. Lentz died in a short time.

A bottle bearing a carbolic acid label, but no druggist's name, was found on the table. Mrs. Lentz was 38 years old.

OATH CONTRADICTS POLL-BOOK RECORD

There is a direct issue of veracity between James Degnan of 1329 North Seventh street and the pollbook of the Fifth precinct of the Third ward.

The evidence of the pollbook is that Degnan registered on the strength of naturalization papers purporting to have been issued by the St. Louis Court of Appeals Oct. 15, 1900, which, according to the records of that court, were never issued.

The evidence of Mr. Degnan, given under oath at the office of United States Commissioner Gray Tuesday, is that he was born a citizen of the United States at Alton, Ill., that he has resided in St. Louis for twenty years, that he has voted at every election during that time, that he has never had naturalization papers in his hands and that he had none and exhibited none when registering at the Fifth precinct of the Third ward.

Degnan was arrested Tuesday on one of the warrants issued Monday by Commissioner Gray. It charges him with having fraudulent naturalization papers in his possession and with having illegally registered on the strength of these.

After he had made a statement to the effect given in the foregoing, under oath, in the office of Commissioner Gray, he was released on his own recognizance to appear Monday.

ELECTION DAY WEATHER IDEAL

In St. Louis and vicinity the skies will continue unclouded throughout Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and the moderate temperature of the past few days will suffer no material change.

The forecast is: "Fair tonight, Wednesday and Thursday; no decided change in temperature; light to fresh northwest winds."

Fair weather and freezing temperature prevails in New York. Showers are falling in parts of Pennsylvania, Ohio and the lake regions. Light rains visited the Pacific coast Monday night.

The only snow in any portion of the country is falling in eastern Maine, where a blizzard has been raging. In all other parts of the United States the day is fair and warm.

"LID" NAILED DOWN ON PIKE BY OFFICIALS

World's Fair Authorities, Acting on Complaint of Ladies' Board and Others, "Cut Out" Objectionable Features of Shows.

"BARKER," WHO OFFENDED, BANISHED FROM "ROME."

Act in "Paris" Is Toned Down, and Oriental Theaters Are Required to Eliminate Dances Which Embarrassed Visitors.

World's Fair authorities are summarily checking this week a tendency upon the part of some of the Pike shows to depart from the standard of morals which has been maintained during the Fair.

The lid was officially put down on some of the performances yesterday and this morning by Director of Concessions Norris B. Gregg, in response to complaints chiefly coming from the Board of Lady Managers and the National Commission.

Mr. Gregg has expelled from the grounds an offensive barker who has been talking in front of Ancient Rome. He has stopped a disrobing act in "Paris," has forbidden the continuance of living pictures of an offensive nature at "Madrid," and has stopped the "hoochee-coochee" dance at Cairo and Constantinople.

Mr. Gregg said to the Post-Dispatch:

"The Exposition will not tolerate anything even bordering on immorality in any of the Pike shows. It has kept the morals of the Pike under stringent limitations from the day the Fair opened, and it is not going to permit any eruption of offensiveness in these last few weeks.

"I have given my inspectors strict orders to report any departure from the rules in the Pike shows, and in instances where the performances have been found wanting in wholesomeness I have either stopped them outright or had them toned down to meet requirements.

"A barker in front of one of the shows was reported to me as being offensive in his description of the performances within. An investigation was made, and the offender was immediately removed, not only from his post in front of the concession, but from the grounds as well. A number of acts in the theaters have been either stopped outright or toned down until they are inoffensive.

Offenses Are Not Continual.

"The difficulty in regulating the morals of the Pike is due to the fact that departures from requirements are intermittent. That is, of a number of performances given at one of the theaters, there may be but one or two in an entire day and night when the performances is carried to offensive lengths.

"I have instructed my inspectors to keep them under constant surveillance."

The offense of the barker driven from Ancient Rome was particularly flagrant, and many of those who heard him hurried away in shame and confusion. Those that took the barker at his word and went in to see something of a forbidden nature came out complaining that the barker's promises were quite empty, the visit within having cost 50 cents in all and the performance having reached nothing more exciting than a graceless dance.

At "Paris" the offending feature of the performance came quickly upon an unsuspecting audience. A young woman came out in an opera cloak and high-heeled slippers, smoking a cigarette, and proceeded to disrobe. The act caused numbers of persons to hurriedly leave the theater, and blushes mounted to many cheeks in the short career which the performer enjoyed before it was stopped.

In the "Cairo" Theater, six girls in the inner theater, to which there is an additional admission of 25 cents, danced the "hoochee-coochee" without restraint.

A similar offense was committed at Constantinople, where another six girls have been dancing the notorious Oriental dance.

"The Girl From Madrid" consited of two shows, the first a suggestion of the second, for which additional charge was made, the visitor paying 50 cents to see both shows. The first performance consisted of a dance by seven women. The barker made bold to inform the crowd that the second performance was for men only, thus intimating that the "lid" would be off. The performance consisted of a coarse dance and so-called living pictures, the remarks of the stage lecturer having been as offensive as the performance.

FOUR BURNED IN HOTEL FIRE

HOUSTON, Tex., Nov. 8.—The Silver Queen hotel in the Sour Lake oil field, was destroyed by fire today and four persons burned to death. Two others were probably fatally injured.

Frank Farris Votes for Walbridge.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

STEELEVILLE, Mo., Nov. 8.—State Senator Frank H. Farris, who has enjoyed many honors at the hands of the Democratic party, cast his vote in today's election for Cyrus P. Walbridge for governor. He voted early, and, upon leaving the polls, declared to Mayor Harry Clymer and Alderman John Davis, two prominent Republicans, that he had cast his first vote for a Republican governor.

NOGI OFFERS PORT ARTHUR ARMY TERMS

Japanese General Ignores the Commander of the Russians and Writes a Letter to the Soldiers, Telling Them of Kuropatkin's Reverses.

CHEFOO, Nov. 8, 5:30 p. m.—The Japanese besieging Port Arthur, ignoring Lieutenant-General Stoessel, the commander of the Russian military forces there, have offered terms of surrender to the Russian soldiers, according to advices leaving Port Dalny yesterday. In the meanwhile the ceaseless activity of picks and spades continues. The Japanese are gradually advancing their trenches, which spell inexorable fate to the watching Russians.

A Russian prisoner, captured Oct. 26, said the troops composing the garrison of Port Arthur were in want and dispirited. They saw the fruitlessness of the struggle. Hopeless of relief, with food scarce and medicine and hospital supplies insufficient, it was admitted by the Russians that a Japanese victory was ultimately inevitable.

The soldiers, according to the prisoner, see no reason to prolong the resistance which brings glory to their officers, but chiefly hardship and death to them.

Upon hearing the prisoner's story, Gen. Nogi assembled his staff, discussed the matter briefly, and then under the light of a bicycle lantern drafted a letter to be circulated among the soldiers themselves, the prisoner having promised to deliver it in mercy to his comrades.

The letter related Gen. Kuropatkin's retreats and his inability to make an impression on the army of Field Marshal Oyama, to say nothing of breaking through his forces and relieving Port Arthur. The letter also pointed out that the second Russian Pacific squadron has just started on its slow voyage. Continuing, it called attention to the resistless advance of the Japanese trenches, making it a matter of weeks when the Japanese would walk into the main Russian strongholds. In conclusion, the letter offered humane treatment to all who surrender, saying it was in the interest of humanity to prevent further useless slaughter.

In the darkness of the early morning of Nov. 4 several copies of the letter, written in Russian, were given to the prisoner, who regained the Russian lines unobserved by his officers. That night the Russian returned, saying his comrades would answer within a few days. He said the temper of the men seemed to show that while they were mutinous toward fate they also did not like the idea of an unofficial surrender.

The letter did much, however, to dispel among the Russian troops the impression fostered by their officers that a massacre would follow a Japanese victory. The company to which the prisoner belonged originally numbered 800 and now totals 20 men.

FOLK PREPARES BALLOT QUICKLY

Democratic Candidate for Governor Remains in Polling Booth but a Few Seconds.

Joseph W. Folk, Democratic candidate for governor, entered the polling place at the Third precinct of the Twenty-fifth ward at Vandeventer avenue and Delmar boulevard at 9:45 o'clock Tuesday morning. He was unaccompanied.

Both the Democratic and Republican judges recognized the boodle prosecutor, and, without asking questions, handed to him an official ballot. Mr. Folk remained inside the polling booth only a few seconds.

He said that his ballot was the one hundred and sixty-ninth cast at the Third precinct, and that the election officials there reported an unusually heavy vote.

MURRELL FUNERAL OCCURRED TODAY

Services Held at Christ Church Cathedral and Interment at Bellefontaine Cemetery.

The funeral of Richard M. Murrell, for many years custodian of stock for the William Barr Dry Goods Co., who died Sunday night, was held Tuesday afternoon.

The body was taken at 2 o'clock from the Southern hotel, where Mr. Murrell had lived for ten years, to Christ Church cathedral, where the burial service of the Episcopal Church was read by the Rev. Benjamin E. Reed, of Grace church. From the church the body was taken to Bellefontaine Cemetery, where it was interred in the private lot of Mr. William Barr, head of the Barr Co.

The honorary pall-bearers were men whom Mr. Murrell had known for many years, and with whom he had been associated in many business dealings. The active pall-bearers were chosen from the heads of departments of the Barr store. The honorary pall-bearers were:

C. A. Thompson, H. C. Lewis, Francis Krenning, Adolph Neuville, W. C. Steigers, Richard Forrester, Georgge M. Wright, John H. McCluney, Rudolph Limberg, F. L. Ridgely and A. E. Faust, Jr.

The active pallbearers were: C. A. Colfer, J. P. Downes, W. D. Shaw, E. F. Beach, W. H. Peck, S. S. Kerr, H. W Warren and J. F. Maynard.

Among the numerous floral offerings was a magnificent wreath, which was sent by employes of the Barr store, a beautiful piece sent by employes of Mr. Murrell's department, and a large offering sent by employes of other business houses.

Mr. Murrell had been ill at the Southern Hotel for several weeks. A short while before his death it was supposed that he was growing better, but a change for the worse soon developed.

HIS YOUNG WIFE MISSING.

Harry A. Cooper Asks Police Aid in Finding Her.

Harry A. Cooper, of 3342 Franklin av., reported to the police Tuesday morning that his young wife disappeared Monday from their home and left no trace. He describes her as 18 years old, 5 feet 5 inches tall, weighing 105 pounds, with dark brown hair and eyes and a dark complexion. She wore a light gray skirt and light waist and coat.

HEAVY VOTE IN ALL WARDS; FOLK LEADS TICKET IN WEST END

Republican State Chairman Says Party Will Carry St. Louis by 10,000 Majority, but Complains of Fraud.

ZACHRITZ FALLING BEHIND TICKET, SAYS L. P. ALOE

Activity of Butler and His Lieutenants Menaces Democratic City Ticket—Priest's Arrest Reacts Against Republicans.

Reports received at noon to-day at the office of the Board of Election Commissioners indicated that 80,000 votes, more than 60 per cent of the registered total vote of the city, had been cast.

"The election is going off smoothly," said Election Commissioner L. P. Aloe, "and I believe we will know the result in St. Louis within two hours after the polls close."

John Ellspermann, secretary of the Board of Election Commissioners, said that the heaviest vote appeared to be in South St. Louis and the West End wards.

According to Mr. Ellsermann, Joseph W. Folk, Democratic candidate for Governor, is running away ahead of his ticket in the Twenty-eighth ward.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the Republican leaders claimed victory, Chairman Niedringhaus predicting a majority of 10,000, but complained that fraud had been committed in the Fourth ward.

Louis P. Aloe, Republican member of the board of election commissioners, predicted that William Zachritz, Republican nominee for circuit judge, would run at least 4000 behind his ticket.

He said he based his estimate upon the information he had secured during the morning from the different polling places of the city.

P. J. Regan of the election commissioners' office said St. Louis would give Walbridge a plurality of 10,000 to 15,000, and that the total vote cast would be between 120,000 and 125,000.

Notwithstanding the defection of the Butler "gang," the Democratic leaders say they are still confident of the success of the city ticket. They rely on immense majorities from the Fourth, Sixteenth, Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh wards.

Further they say that "Col." Butler's personal following does not exceed 2500, and that his main reliance is on the assistance which he expects from the Democratic judges and clerks, a majority of whom were appointed at his instance.

An exceptionally heavy vote was recorded from the lower river wards.

In the Fourth ward, particularly, the voters were out in large numbers and the workers predicted that by 5 o'clock they would have their entire forces lined up at the polls.

The Twenty-eighth ward, which is expected to go Democratic, gave the Republican ticket a majority of 800 two years ago.

The Third ward usually rolls up a Democratic majority varying between 2000 and 2500.

There is a falling off of 1600 in the registration in the Third ward this time, and this decrease is largely Democratic, so that the Democratic leaders will be content with a majority of 1000 there.

The Democratic managers feel that they will get a big vote in South St. Louis—big enough, they say, to overcome the treachery anticipated in other wards.

CITY'S INTEREST SHOWN BY HEAVY EARLY VOTE; LOCAL ISSUES LEAD.

At 5:45 o'clock Tuesday morning forty men, among them several well-known business men, assembled at precinct 12 of the Twenty-eighth ward, at Academy avenue and Suburban railroad tracks.

When the polling place was opened 15 minutes later there were probably 100 men in line waiting to vote.

At precinct 14 of the Twenty-eighth ward, Clarendon avenue and Suburban tracks, the procession of voters was equally large.

Ward committeemen of both parties stated that they had never before witnessed such an early and heavy vote.

In all the precincts of the Twenty-eighth ward an aggregate of 2000 votes was cast between 6 and 8 o'clock. The total registration for the ward is 7500, and the workers say that fully 90 per cent of the vote will be recorded.

The Democratic leaders were particularly jubilant over the early vote. Nelson W. McLeod, one of the original supporters of Joseph W. Folk, for governor, expressed the belief that the Twenty-eighth would roll up a majority of 1500 to 1800 for the Democratic ticket.

In the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh wards, which are Democratic strongholds, the voters were out early.

Reports from North and South St. Louis also indicate that a large vote is being polled there.

The ideal weather is helping both sides to get out a full vote.

From two to four policemen are stationed at each of the 413 precincts in the city.

Chief of Police Kiely said his officers were under explicit instructions to arrest the authors of the slightest disturbance at the polls.

Priest's Arrest Has Its Effect.

"The warrants in connection with the naturalization fraud cases were served yesterday," said the marshal. "There are no more on hand at this time, and even if there were I would not attempt to serve them today."

The arrest of Father Thomas J. Aylward, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic Church, on the charge of registering on a false certificate of naturalization, caused amazement in political circles.

Discussing the incident at the closing rally of the campaign held at South St. Louis Wage-Earners' hall Tuesday night, Mr. Hawes made this statement:

"That a priest without a blemish on his character should be dragged from the seclusion of his library before a United States marshal and charged with a criminal offense, of which no one believes him guilty, is a blot that cannot soon be eradicated.

"If the Democracy of the city and state needed one thing to bring victory the arrest of Father Aylward was the one thing. There is nothing that could have hurt the Republican party more. There is nothing that could have so aided the Democracy."

Few of the Republican leaders doubt that Joseph W. Folk will be elected governor by a majority of 25,000 to 45,000.

The conditions of today's election, so far as St. Louis is concerned, are widely at variance with those of two years ago.

At that time the Democrats swept the city by 12,000, increasing their majority from 8000 at the mayoralty election in 1901.

In the presidential election of 1900, the Democratic local ticket got through by a plurality of less than 1200. Bryan lost the city by 2000 votes and Dockery by 4100. If Mr. Folk should carry St. Louis, he will have done something that no Missouri governor has done for the past 20 years.

In 1888 D. R. Francis went out of St. Louis with a majority of several thousand against him; four years later W. J. Stone suffered a setback of 5000 votes in St. Louis, and in 1896 the Republican candidate for governor had 11,000 St. Louis votes more than Lon V. Stephens.

This year the presidential contest has been almost eliminated locally.

Not a dozen speeches on national issues have been made by the spellbinders of the Democratic and Republican parties, as state and municipal issues have overshadowed the discussion of the merits of Judge Parker and President Roosevelt.

Democratic politicians are concerned chiefly with the Third, Fifth, Sixteenth, Fifteenth, Twenty-second, Twenty-third and Twenty-fifth wards, which usually are under the domination of Republican men.

For the first time since the campaign opened "Col." Ed Butler made his appearance of these wards late Monday afternoon and conferred with a number of his political assistants.

Butler "Gang" Out With Knife.

The Butler "gang" make the claim that the six wards mentioned will roll up a net majority of 5000 or 6000 against Joseph W. Folk, although heretofore they have been solidly Democratic.

If this claim should prove a reality the Democrats would come out of the Twelfth district under a tremendous handicap, one which Mr. Hawes, Judge McCaffery and other leaders fear it would be impossible to overcome.

Two years ago the Twenty-second ward gave the Democratic ticket 1000 majority. The Butler men say this ward will go for the Republican candidate for governor by not less than 100, or a clear difference of 1000 votes in favor of the Republican party.

Thomas J. Ward for sheriff, Garrard Strode for public administrator and Virgil Rule for circuit judge are the three Democratic candidates whom the Butlers are especially desirous of defeating. They are opposed to Rule because he was one of the original supporters of Joseph W. Folk, and they are going to try to roll Ward and Strode for the reason that these two men gave great assistance to Hawes at the Democratic primaries a month ago.

AIRSHIP FLIGHT STILL IN FUTURE

M. Francois, Scheduled to Make Attempt Wednesday, Again Postpones Start.

BALDWIN CRAFT DISMANTLED.

Benbow Airship Rides at Anchor Awaiting Favorable Opportunity—Balloon for Tuesday.

M. Hippolyte Francois, the French aeronaut whose first-class aerial battleship is the wonder of the World's Fair just now, announced to the Post-Dispatch Tuesday that he would not likely make his maiden voyage in the United States until Thursday.

Mr. Francois had hoped to cast off Wednesday afternoon but one thing and another has interfered with his plans, and there is hardly any likelihood that he will go up Wednesday.

Crowds of people throng the aerodrome, or airship barn, and view the ships. The Francois ship is so big and so ship-like in its contour that it seems like a vessel in dry dock, so high does it tower and so boat-like does its body rise at the ends. It is a monster, with a gas capacity of 65,000 cubic feet, and the outdoors will not be any too big for it when it gets under way.

The Baldwin airship, which has been doing more flying than all its competitors together, has been dismantled temporarily for overhauling, and it will hardly be in commission again before Thursday. The Benbow airship, as trim a craft of the smaller sort as there is at the concourse, rides at anchor in the harbor, and apparently awaits only a still day and a man with the courage of his opportunity.

Paul Knabenshue, brother of A. Roy Knabenshue, who makes the ascensions with the Baldwin airship, completed arrangements Tuesday morning for making a balloon ascension at the Fair during the afternoon. He is scheduled to sail with the wind a hundred miles or so. The direction of the wind at 1 o'clock indicated that the balloon would pass directly over the city.

SWINGLEY'S AUTO BILL EILED

Measure Presented to House of Delegates—Improvement Bills Again Delayed.

The House of Delegates will meet Friday evening to pass upon a number of bills for improvement work which were laid over from Monday night's meeting.

Among the bills introduced was one providing for the purchase of an automobile for Fire Chief Swingley and appropriating $2000 for the purpose. A bill was also introduced appropriating $20,000 for the erection of a fire-engine house in the territory bounded by Neosho, Wall, Virginia and Wisconsin avenues.

It was declared at Monday night's session that one of the principal reasons for the delay in the improvements planned was the high prices asked by contractors. The committee in the hands of which the improvement measures had been placed reported in favor of delay until more favorable bids are secured. The House will meet daily after Friday until the bills on hand are disposed of.

STATES PARKER MUST WIN TODAY

Success in Several Groups of So-Called Doubtful States Insures Victory.

NEW YORK A NECESSITY.

Roosevelt Can Be Elected President, However, Without Vote of the Empire State.

Both committees concede that the states placed in the Democratic and Republican columns of the table below will go as indicated. Parker's election then depends upon his ability to secure 80 of the 120 "doubtful" electoral votes. Democrats who say he will do this make these claims:

New York 39, Indiana 15, West Virginia 7, New Jersey 12, Connecticut 7—80.

New York 39, Indiana 15, West Virginia 7, Nevada 3, Rhode Island 4, Connecticut 7, Colorado 5—80.

New York 39, Indiana 15, West Virginia 7, Wisconsin 13, New Jersey 12—86.

New York 39, New Jersey 12, Delaware 3, West Virginia 7, Nevada 4, Colorado 5, Utah 3, Idaho 3, Rhode Island 4—80.

New York 39, New Jersey 12, Connecticut 7, Indiana 15, Delaware 3, West Virginia 7, Wisconsin 13, Utah 3, Idaho 3—101.

On the other hand Roosevelt's friends claim he will carry New York 39, Indiana 15, Connecticut 7, Wisconsin 13, New Jersey 12 and Rhode Island 4, and several of the western states. As he has to find only 32 votes he does not need New York if he carry Indiana, Wisconsin and Connecticut; or Wisconsin, Connecticut and New Jersey; or Wisconsin, Connecticut, Idaho, Montana, Utah and Wyoming.

DEMOCRATS LET WALBRIDGE VOTE

Republican Candidate's Error in Failing to Sign Registration Books Is Overlooked.

Cyrus P. Walbridge, Republican candidatet for Governor, was so delighted over being permitted to vote Tuesday that he immediately telephoned the news to Secretary W. F. Saunders of the Business Men's League, of which he is president. Mr. Walbridge resides at 3714 Westminster place, and votes in the Sixth precinct of the Twenty-fifth ward.

On account of his failure to sign the registration books when he listed as a voter, it was believed that Mr. Walbridge would not be permitted to vote.

Assistant City Counselor Bates rendered an opinion to the effect that no man who had failed to attach his signature to the registration books was a legal voter.

Mr. Walbridge presented himself at his polling place, and no objection being offered by Democratic officials, his vote was received.

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 8.—The polls opened at 7 o'clock in this city. Nearly all precincts report a heavy vote during the morning, with much scratching being done. The weather was clear and pleasant.

Few Election Complaints.

Several complaints were received at Republican headquarters from Fourth ward polling places. During the morning there were no complaints from other wards, except one from the Fifth. John E. Graham, of 811 Pine street, reported that when he attempted to cast a Republican ballot at the polling place at Seventh and Market streets, the judges dropped a Democratic ballot in the box instead.

Light Vote Worries Republicans.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 8.—The early morning vote throughout Sangamon County, and particularly in the city of Springfield, is exceedingly light, a condition that is distressing to the Republicans. While the county is conceded to the national and state tickets by a small majority, the Democrats are making a vigorous battle for their county ticket, and probably will elect two candidates, W. E. Shutt, state's attorney, and Otho Caldwell, recorder. Ben F. Caldwell, Democrat, will be returned to [illegible] district, the Twenty-first.

EARLY AND HEAVY VOTE BEING CAST

new capitol building at Jefferson City; for the free text-book system in the state outside of St. Louis, which already has free text-books; the initiative and referendum, police pension fund and that requiring railroad companies to issue transportation to members of the legislature, state and county officials.

In this connection, attention is directed to the fact that if the railroads are compelled to issue such free transportation the statute making the acceptance of a pass on the part of any public officer a misdemeanor will be removed.

This amendment was passed through the Legislature unanimously two years ago, with the aid of the state-house lobby being supported in the upper branch of the assembly by John F. Morton of Ray County and other conspicuous lobby lights.

NIEDRINGHAUS PREDICTS REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

Thomas K. Niedringhaus, chairman of the Republican state committee, predicted at noon that the Republicans would carry St. Louis by a majority of 10,000, basing his claims on reports received up to that time. He said:

"Up to noon our reports showed most gratifying results, except in the Fourth. In North and South St. Louis many voters are voting the straight Republican ticket. Up to 10.30 o'clock an average of 200 votes to the precinct had been cast. In the West End a heavy vote was also being polled. The outrages in the Fourth ward were anticipated. We have learned to expect the brutal assault of Republican judges and clerks and challengers and watchers under partisan police protection.

"The police are inside the polling places, doing partisan and criminal work. Republican ballots are being rejected. Democratic ballots have been substituted for Republican votes in plain view of the voter. The entire Democratic ticket will be the beneficiary in this ward of this criminal work, and everywhere else where it is done. But notwithstanding the outrages in this ward I confidently look for a sweeping Republican victory in St. Louis and throughout the State."

STATE TICKET LEADS IN INTEREST IN KANSAS CITY.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 8.—A heavy early vote was cast in Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kan. On the Missouri side more than the usual interest was taken, especially in the state ticket. The weather was ideal.

SURPRISINGLY LARGE VOTE AT ST. JOSEPH.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Nov. 8.—Election day is clear and voting has been heavy since the opening of the polls. Notwithstanding the seeming apathy of the working classes during the campaign, they are turning out in great numbers.

CHICAGO INTERESTS ARE AT STAKE IN ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Election day dawned with sky overcast, but with small prospect of rain, while the temperature was a happy medium, neither hot nor cold. Indications early in the day pointed to a heavy vote.

There are local questions in addition to the national and state tickets upon which the voters of Chicago and Cook County, regardless of party faith, had been importuned to register their will, chief of which is a proposed constitutional amendment that would enable the legislature to grant the city a new charter.

The first hour of voting showed a lively interest in the business of the day.

BAY STATE DEMOCRATS CLAIM GOVERNORSHIP.

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Indications of the polling of an unusually large vote throughout Massachusetts appeared in the early part of election morning.

Excellent weather, a trifle colder than any that has yet appeared this autumn, prevailed.

Democratic leaders entered upon today's election conceding the state for President Roosevelt by perhaps 60,000, but claimed the election of Douglas, the Democratic candidate for governor over Gov. Bates (Rep.).

PROHIBITIONISTS EXPECT GOOD RESULTS THIS YEAR.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Optimism over election prospects prevails in the councils of the Prohibition party. Oliver W. Stewart, chairman of the Prohibition national committee, says he is confident Silas C. Swallow will receive 300,000 of the votes cast today, which is an advance of 90,000 over the ballot given John G. Woolley in 1900.

Alonso E. Wilson, chairman of the state committee, expressed his belief that Arthur Gourley would receive enough Prohibition votes to send him to the house of representatives from the Sixth district and is also hopeful that several Prohibition members of the legislature will be chosen in Chicago and downstate districts.

WEST VIRGINIA VOTERS SCRATCHING STATE TICKET

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 8.—The weather is promising and the early morning vote is the heaviest on record in Wheeling. Dawson, the Republican candidate for governor, is being scratched.

MARYLAND LEADERS ARE POLLING A FULL VOTE.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 8.—In the twenty-three counties of Maryland the polls opened at 8 o'clock this morning and will close at 6 o'clock this afternoon.

The weather in every part of the state is favorable to bringing out a very large poll, and advices from the counties indicate that both parties are polling their full strength.

The election is proceeding quietly, though there is extraordinary activity among the Democrats and Republicans in getting voters to the polls. Dispatches from the southern counties constituting the "black belt" of Maryland are to the effect that many illiterate negroes are finding difficulty in voting the complicated ballot.

Rheumatism

Is one of the constitutional diseases. It manifests itself in local aches and pains,—inflamed joints and stiff muscles,—but it cannot be cured by local applications. It requires constitutional treatment acting through the blood, and the best is a course of the great medicine

EARLY VOTE INDICATES HEAVY POLL IN MARYLAND

BALTIMORE, Nov. 8.—In Baltimore the polls opened at 6 o'clock this morning, at which hour many voters were already at the precinct booths ready to cast their ballots.

Reports indicate that the vote will be heavy in city and state in consequence of the campaign enthusiasm aroused during the past week and of the fine weather that prevails.

KANSAS REPUBLICAN TREASURER SCRATCHED.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 8.—The indications are that Treasurer Kelly (Rep.), for re-election, is being scratched because of charges of irregularities in his office made by the state accountant.

In Topeka, at least 15 per cent of the registered vote had been polled before 9 o'clock and increased interest was shown throughout the state.

STRAIGHT TICKETS FAVOR DELAWARE REPUBLICANS.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 8.—The day opened clear and pleasant in this city. Both parties are using every effort to get out a full vote. From present indications it does not appear that much cutting is being done. This would indicate that the Republicans will poll their full vote and is favorable to Roosevelt and Lea, the candidate for governor.

FARMERS SCRATCHING IN WEST VIRGINIA.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 8.—At Democratic headquarters the statement was given out that the vote would be the largest ever gotten out in the state. The Democrats claim three of the five congressmen.

Reports from over the state say that the farmers are scratching Dawson, Republican, for governor, to the extent that the election of Cornwell is assured.

Unless the scratching of Dawson results in many ballots being thrown out, it is believed that Roosevelt will carry the state with a majority equal to that of McKinley.

WISCONSIN INTEREST NOT DAMPENED BY RAINS.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 8.—The battle of ballots in this state opened with a rush this morning. The weather here was cloudy and mild. The early vote was heavy. Voting machines are used throughout the city.

There is intense interest and a close election is expected.

At Oshkosh voting machines will be tried today for the first time. A drizzling rain is falling in that section.

Factions Prevent Balloting.

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 8.—The heaviest vote in the history of Camden county is being polled by both the Republicans and Democrats. Roosevelt and Stokes run about even. One arrest has been made for illegal voting. In Woodlin, a suburb of Camden, no votes have been cast because of a factional fight. One faction has the ballots and the other the ballot box.

Delaware Looks Republican.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 8.—Reports from the two lower counties in this state are to the effect that a heavy vote is being polled. Very little cutting is being done, the vote for Chandler, who was the regular Republican candidate, and who is now running independent, being small. This would indicate that the Republicans will carry the state for both Roosevelt and Lea.

Connecticut Voters Anxious.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 8.—Crisp, clear weather was reported from all parts of Connecticut, making election day conditions the best in many years. In Hartford the crush of voters at the opening of voting places was unprecedented, in one ward 100 men being in line before daylight.

Gov. Garvin Has Chance.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 8.—The early voting indicated the heaviest total poll in the history of the state. Ideal weather prevailed. Republicans admitted the defeat of Gov. Garvin (Democrat) as possibly doubtful, but claimed the state for Roosevelt.

War on Fees System.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Nov. 8.—Election day in this city and central Illinois was marked by perfect weather conditions and an unusually heavy early vote, despite the lack of interest shown throughout the campaign and falling off in registration. Indications point to average Republican majorities for all candidates with the possible exception of state's attorney, where the Democrats have waged a stubborn fight on the "fee" system in this office.

Says He Was Thrown Out.

Three complaints were made Tuesday morning by persons whose names were not taken, at the office of United States District Attorney Dyer, of having been refused the right to vote at the polling place at Ninth street and Lucas avenue. Two were white men and one was a negro. One of the white men said he came out of the booth with a Republican ticket in his hand and attempted to cast it. A man snatched it out of his hand, he said, and handed him a Democratic ticket and told him to vote that. He refused and the man took him by the neck and threw him out. The men were told to carry their complaints to the office of the election commissioners, as the district attorney had no jurisdiction.

The First Arrest.

The first arrest reported during the day was in the Seventh ward, at the polling place located at 1800 South Thirteenth street. Policeman Campbell of the Third district arrested Louis Weselski, a challenger, on the charge of "bullyragging," or disturbing voters who had formed in the line. He was taken to the Third district station and locked up.

Challenger Driven Away.

E. H. Dutton, Republican challenger at the polling place of the Sixth precinct of the Fourth ward, at 1110 Locust street, reported to Republican headquarters at 9.30 o'clock that he had been ejected from the polls. He said that he was only permitted to remain a few minutes after the poll opened. The Democratic judges, he said, then insisted upon his vacating, and, according to his view of it, "browbeat" the Republican judges into agreeing with him.

Scratching in 24th Ward.

Voting in the seventeenth precinct of the Twenty-fourth ward progressed rapidly during the forenoon, and by 10 o'clock nearly one-third of the registered vote had been deposited in the ballot-box. A long line of voters awaited the opening of the doors of the voting place. Most of those who appeared early were laborers and office men, who could not get back from work in time to cast their votes before the closing of the polls. There was considerable scratching.

Laborer Charged With Fraud.

John Barbero, 57 years old, of 1018 Brooklyn street, was arrested Tuesday afternoon, charged with registering on forged naturalization papers dated November 1, 1900. Barbero, who is a laborer employed by the city, said he never had voted on his papers. He secured them, he said, by going to the courthouse with the foreman under whom he then was working.

SECRET PARDON FOR LONG'S NEPHEW

Soldier Convicted of Embezzlement Later Released from Manila Prison and Deported.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 8.—Eighteen of twenty-two ex-soldiers considered as undesirable characters and ordered deported from the Philippines were brought across the Pacific by the steamer Tremont at the request of the government officials in Manila.

One of them, whose name is given as John D. Long and who is said to be a nephew of John D. Long, ex-secretary of the navy, left the steamer at Victoria, B. C.

Long was arrested in Manila on a charge of embezzlement. When searched $880 was found sewed in the lining of his coat sleeves. He was sentenced to seven years in the island prison. He served only six months, and when pressure was brought to bear he was allowed to go, on agreeing to leave the island never to return. Long was granted what the government calls a "confidential pardon."

Iowa Banker Indicted.

DES MOINES, Io., Nov. 8.—Ed Miller, a member of the firm of O. E. Miller & Son, private bankers at New Providence, Io., which failed last March, has been indicted by the Hardin County grandjury on a charge of fraudulent banking and is now under arrest. It is claimed that Miller received deposits when he knew that his bank was insolvent.

MORAL SUASION FOR RUSSIAN STUDENTS

Sviatopolk-Mirsky Changes the Plan of Quelling Disturbances and Succeeds.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 8.—There was a small student disturbance at the university to-day, but it was handled in the same rational manner as the one at the Kazan Cathedral about 10 days ago, and as a result the whole affair passed off without serious consequences.

About a thousand university students divided into two groups, one singing the Russian national anthem and the other the "Marseillaise." The police apealed to the latter group to stop and they agreed to do so if their opponents stopped. This was done and the affair ended with a hearty laugh all around.

The previous affair referred to above was organized on the occasion of the requiem in the Kazan cathedral on the anniversary of the death of Alexander III, the students making a demonstration in memory of the death in the Peter and Paul fortress of one of their number, named Borski. On this occasion Fullon, the president elect of police, ordered the police home and personally spoke to the students, asking them to desist and disperse, which they did.

CONGRESS WILL MISS THESE FACES

When the Forty-Ninth Session Convenes in 1905 Many Democrats Will Be Absent.

PRIVATE BUSINESS CAUSE.

In the South Particularly There Will Be a Change in the Representation.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—However the congressional elections may go there will be a number of old and familiar faces on the Democratic side of that chamber missing when the Fifty-ninth Congress convenes the first Monday in December of 1905.

The fight for Congress began long before the presidential campaign became even lukewarm. It has been on since July 1. Immediately following the Democratic convention both parties opened headquarters and commenced an active and aggressive campaign for the purpose of getting the weak-kneed into line on the congressional tickets.

Joseph W. Babcock, chairman of the Republican committee, opened his shop in New York City, where he would be convenient to the national committee. Chairman William S. Cowherd, of the Democratic committee, opened his headquarters here in Washington, where he has conducted an aggressive campaign, but largely on independent lines and with funds that were raised practically without the assistance of the national committee.

Masonic Business Claims Richardson.

One of the most important of the Democrats not to be re-elected, and who voluntarily retired, is Representative James D. Richardson, who, prior to the ascendancy of John Sharp Williams, was the minority leader and the Democratic mouthpiece in the House. He will be succeeded by W. C. Houston, a man unknown in national politics. Mr. Richardson has served his district for twenty years without interruption, and could have remained in Congress so long as he lived had he been so inclined. James D. Richardson is the highest member of the Masonic order for the Southern jurisdiction in the United States. He holds that office for life, is provided with a sandsome home here in Washington for the transaction of the Masonic business and paid a salary far in excess of that of a member of Congress. He has attempted to fill this office and that of member of Congress, but the growing demands upon his time in connection with his fraternal duties caused him to make a choice between the two, and he chose to give up politics forever.

Another of the strong men to retire to private life is Hugh A. Dinsmore of Arkansas. He has served his people for twelve years, and was refused a renomination. No Democratic member stands higher or possesses the good will of the Republicans to greater extent than this Democrat. Mr. Dinsmore is a man of commanding preeminence in ability and legislative experience. For ten years he has been a conspicuous figure in the House by reason of his membership of the committee on foreign affairs, this position making him the representative of his party in attacking the foreign policy of the Republican administration. When Cleveland was first President Mr. Dinsmore was the American minister to Corea, and established a reputation for himself as a diplomat of high rank.

Others Were Denied Nomination.

In the Southern states a number of the best-known men of the house have been denied renomination, although it has been the custom of these states to retain their men in Congress for long terms, and this fact has given the South prominence in both branches of the federal legislature. In Georgia John W. Maddox in the Seventh and F. Carter Tate in the Ninth districts, both of whom entered Congress in the Fifty-third congress, have been turned down. John S. Rhea of the Third Kentucky district, one of the prominent Democrats of the house, after four terms will not return. The city of Covington, across the river from Cincinnati, also refused to permit D. Linn Gooch to go back. In the Fourth Baltimore district James W. Denny will be missed, while in Missouri three of the old-timers will not come back.

Of these, John Dougherty of the Third district, elected in the Fifty-sixth congress, has not been prominent, but Willard D. Vandiver in the Fourteenth and Judge Charles Fremont Cochran in the Fourth, both of whom entered in the Fifty-fifth congress, will be among those whose presence will be looked for frequently, but in vain. Judge Cochran is what might be termed a "fire-eater" and a radical among radicals. He was, before entering Congress, the editor of a Democratic paper and will probably return to that profession.

In 1902 Morgan C. Fitzpatrick in the Fourth Tennessee district defeated Congressman Snodgrass for the nomination, but after one term he, too, fell before the onslaught made by M. G. Butler, who will in like manner succeed him in the next house.

Rice A. Pierce of the Ninth Tennessee district, who first entered Congress in the Forty-eighth, met his finish at the hands of Finis Garrett, who will be his successor in the next house.

Texas sends back its solid delegation with the single exception of Sam Bronson Cooper, who hails from the Beaumont district. Cooper came here in the Fifty-third Congress and has always been popular, but his constituents have nominated for his place M. S. Brooks of San Augustine.

Northern Democrats to Be Absent.

Some of the Democratic constituencies of the North are equally fickle. Three of the Democratic incumbents from Chicago—Martin Emmuth, James McAndrews and William Frank Mahoney—will not be in the next Congress, while down in the lower part of the state, in the Twenty-third district, J. B. Crowley was denied a renomination.

Francis Marion Griffith, who succeded William S. Holman of Indiana, the great "objector" to appropriations, and who has served the Fourth district since that time, is among those who will not be present when the roll is called for the new Congress. Up in Massachusetts, where Congressman John R. Thayer, who came to Congress with the Fifty-sixth, will be succeded by John B. Ratigan of Worcester. In Ohio, John S. Snook, in the Fifth, and John W. Cassingham, in the Seventeen districts, have been retired, while over in Pennsylvania, Charles Heber Dickerman, after serving one term, gives way to an untried candidate.

The Democrats of New York state who disappear are Townsend Scudder, in the First; Edward M. Bassett, in the Fifth; Francis Burton Harrison, in the Thirteenth; Ira Rider, in the Fourteenth, and Francis E. Shober.

How to Get Rid of Mice.

A lady reader has written us asking that we publish for the benefit of all house-wives a recipe for exterminating mice. She says her life was almost unbearable by these little pests until she read of Stearns' Electric Rat and Roach Paste, which completely freed her home from mice. This Paste is easy to use, and greedily devoured by rats, mice, cockroaches and other vermin. It insures death, and gives universal satisfaction, especially as the rats and mice do not die in the house. Dealers generally have the Paste for sale, or package will be sent, express prepaid on receipt of price, by the Stearns' Electric Paste Co., Tribune Building, Chicago, Ill. Small size, 25c; Hotel size, eight times the quantity, $1.00.

FRANCHISE FOR TROLLEY LINE.

Rights Granted for Road from St. Louis to Valley Park.

The St. Louis county court at Clayton has granted the petition of the St. Louis and Valley Park Railway Company for a franchise to construct an electric railroad from St. Louis to Valley Park.

The petition was filed over a year ago, but was held up owing to differences of property owners along the proposed route over the location of the tracks. The property owners recently agreed. Leaving the city limits the new road will follow the Gravois road by way of Fenton to Valley Park. It is said that Eastern capital will finance the project.

Wanamaker Returns Home.

John Wanamaker, formerly postmaster general, and one of the most prominent business men of Philadelphia, has returned to his home after visiting the World's Fair. Mr. Wanamaker addressed a meeting of the King's Highway Cumberland Presbyterian Church Monday evening regarding the men's club in Philadelphia and the advantages gained from it. The club was organized in 1898 by Mr. Wanamaker. The principal object of Monday night's meeting was to lay the foundation for the organization of a similar club in St. Louis.

PLAN BRIDAL TOUR 10,000 MILES LONG

Dr. T. K. Hunt Will Take Wife When He Returns to Fair Luzon.

WOOED AND WON AT FAIR.

Romance Followed Acquaintance Formed Early in Summer—Kentucky Girl Bride-to-Be.

The strangest bridal tour any bride ever had will be that of Miss Sallie Gallagher, who is to be married to Dr. T. K. Hunt, governor of the Igorrote village at the World's Fair, before the close of the Exposition.

It will be a journey of over 10,000 miles over land and sea, with seventy-five savages as traveling companions, and the destination will be the haunts of the head-hunting Bontocs in the mountains of Luzon, in the Philippine Islands, where the feet of a white woman have not hitherto trod.

But the wedding journey will be in keeping with the courtship and its setting. It has taken place amid the make-believe scenes of the mimic Luzon at the Fair, and both the courtship and the representation of Eastern life have been fit preludes to the realities that are to follow.

It is a sober fact that Cupid has been very busy about the Igorrote Village during the summer. It would seem that he viewed as evidence of kinship the similarity between his garb and that of the head-hunters, and decided to spend the summer there.

Romance after romance has had its inception and growth among the hillside huts. Some of them have been told. There was the midsummer dream of Dukune, the Bontoc brave, who fell madly in love with the pomelano girl, and the desperate infatuation of John Harding for Tugmina, the beautiful Suyoc maiden, and the curious and incongruous affection of Juan the midget for a buxom Bontoc woman three times his height. And there have been others, any number of them.

And while Cupid has been bestirring himself among the grass-thatched houses he has not neglected "the big house." Dr. Hunt has his headquarters there and a stenographer was indispensable. It was just as indispensable, in the judgment of Dr. Hunt, that his correspondence should be done by a pretty stenographer.

Miss Sallie Gallagher of Louisville, Ky., met this requirement, and she was employed to write the letters for the manager of the Igorrotes.

Dr. Hunt's parents and her parents had once been friends in Chicago and it was not altogether as strangers that they first met. She had come to St. Louis to see the World's Fair and was loath to go back to Louisville. Dr. Hunt learned that she wanted to remain and offered her the position of stenographer of the Igorrote village. That offered greater opportunity than she had dreamed of for seeing the Fair and she delightedly accepted the proposition.

The ultimate outcome was not long in doubt. Cupid made good use of the languorous afternoons of the late summer and before September was much more than half spent Dr. Hunt found himself confessing to himself that he was bad hit. It was natural that he should tell her about it and by and by a letter went to her parents in Louisville telling them that she had promised to be the wife of Dr. Hunt and go with him back to the mountains of Luzon.

There was a great deal of surprise when the rumor spread that Dr. Hunt was going to get married. It was remembered that when the Igorrotes first came to the Fair grounds, in the early spring, Dr. Hunt had a wife and child with him. After a while they left and it was announced that Mrs. Hunt had gone to Germany to visit her relatives. Later, Dr. Hunt was missing for a while and it was announced that he had gone to New York. Now he explains that his mission to New York was to obtain a divorce and that he obtained one while there because for a couple of years there had been such incompatibility that he and his wife had not lived happily together.

The journey of Miss Gallagher to the Philippines as the bride of Dr. Hunt will be the more like a bridal tour in that they will remain there only a couple of months before Dr. Hunt starts back for the Lewis and Clark Exposition at Portland.

The most picturesque part of the journey will be from the coast to the mountain villages. This is a distance of 125 miles. Dr. Hunt expects that 500 of the natives will meet them at the coast and these will be the escort for Dr. Hunt and his bride on the journey to the interior.

The wedding will take place in St. Louis shortly before the close of the Exposition.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR ARRIVES

Union Station Crowd Prevented His Meeting Commissioner-General—To Remain 4 Days.

Sir Henry Mortimer Durand, British Ambassador to the United States, is in St. Louis to visit the World's Fair. He arrived at Union Station from Washington Monday night and was to have been met by Col. Watson, British commissioner-general, and R. Diaz Albertini, representing the Exposition.

So great was the crowd, however, that Col. Watson was unable to get near Ambassador Durand after seeing him alight from his car. After waiting several minutes Col. Watson and Mr. Albertini stationed themselves at the main exit, thinking to meet the ambassador as he came out.

Sir Mortimer, on the other hand, took up his position at the train gate, waiting to be met. After waiting sometime Sir Mortimer took a carriage for the Washington hotel.

Ambassador Durand will remain in St. Louis four days. President Francis and Mayor Wells called at the Washington hotel Tuesday morning and extended official welcome.

Wednesday's program includes a luncheon by Dr. Theodor Lewad, German commissioner to the World's Fair, and a reception in the evening to Sir Mortimer and the foreign commissioners at the British pavilion.

GOVERNMENT BOARD MET HERE

Session Transferred from Washington to World's Fair.

The first meeting of the board of department fortifications of the United States, to be held west of the Mississippi river, was called to order in the Government building at the World's Fair Tuesday morning.

The board meets monthly in Washington, but came to the World's Fair this month on the invitation of the steel manufacturers. An inspection of the armor exhibits will be made and routine business will be transacted.

The board will be in session for three or four days and will be entertained at dinner at the Tyrolean Alps.

Garbage Boat in Commission.

The steamboat Louisiana has been leased by the city and will go into commission Wednesday hauling men and supplies from St. Louis to Chesley Island, 20 miles down the river. ROOSEVELT'S FLYING TRIP HOME

Goes to Oyster Bay to Vote and Will Be Back in Washington Tonight.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt arrived in Jersey City at 7:12 o'clock this morning on his way to Oyster Bay, Long Island, where he will vote. A special tug with the President and his party aboard started for Long Island City at 7:23, reached there at 7:56 and left at 8:45 for Oyster Bay, where he arrived at 10:30. He leaves there at 11 a. m. and will return to Washington, where he will read election returns tonight.

The Winner

IN politics, as well as in business, the race is to the swift and to the strong. A striking example of this great truth is before you today in the Presidential election with two of America's strongest leaders in the limelight of public attention.

One of them will doubtless be our next President and as such will be looked upon as the head of one of the world's greatest nations.

It's the taking of the initiative that wins, and this store's unquestioned leadership is largely due to the fact that we are constantly looking to the betterment of our service and to maintain the lowest prices on all grades of merchandise at all times.

We want you to look to us for your every need, to have implicit faith in our every announcement and to make this store your store in all that the meaning of the term implies.

We are striving to make the name—The May Co.—synonymous with absolute integrity in every mind; and until this fact is accomplished we will constantly tell you of the "May Way" and seek to prove its fairness in the daily store life.

Mrs. Anderson, a prominent society woman of Jacksonville, Fla., daughter of Recorder of Deeds, West, who witnessed her signature to the following letter, praises Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—There are but few wives and mothers who have not at times endured agonies and such pain as only women know. I wish such women knew the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It is a remarkable medicine, different in action from any I ever knew and thoroughly reliable.

"I have seen cases where women doctored for years without permanent benefit, who were cured in less than three months after taking your Vegetable Compound, while others w o were chronic and incurable came out cured, happy, and in perfect health after a thorough treatment with this medicine. I have never used it myself without gaining great benefit. A few doses restores my strength and appetite, and tones up the entire system. Your medicine has been tried and found true, hence I fully endorse it."—MRS. R. A. ANDERSON, 225 Washington St., Jacksonville, Fla.

Mrs. Reed, 2425 E. Cumberland St., Philadelphia, Pa., says:

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel it my duty to write and tell you the good I have received from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"I have been a great sufferer with female trouble, trying different doctors and medicines with no benefit. Two years ago I went under an operation, and it left me in a very weak condition. I had stomach trouble, backache, headache, palpitation of the heart, and was very nervous; in fact, I ached all over. I find yours is the only medicine that reaches such troubles, and would cheerfully recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all suffering women."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhœa, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

The experience and testimony of some of the most noted women of America go to prove, beyond a question, that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct all such trouble at once by removing the cause and restoring the organs to a healthy and normal condition. If in doubt, write Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass, as thousands do. Her advice is free and helpful.

No other medicine for women in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. Refuse to buy any substitute.

$5000 FORFEIT cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

HARRY THAW SAYS MONEY IS HIS OWN

Denies His Income Can Be Curtailed—Talks, But Not on Marriage Question.

MISS NESBITT COMPLAINS.

Says She Has Been Badly Treated But Declines to Talk of Ceremony.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—"There have been many stories about my income being cut. They are absolutely false. There has been no discussion of any such thing."

So said Henry Kemball Thaw last night. And he intimated that his property is his, absolutely, and he cannot be deprived of it under any circumstances.

Miss Evelyn Florence Nesbitt, her friend, Mrs. J. J. Caine, and Mr. Thaw went to see Mme. Rejane play at the Lyric theater last night. Miss Nesbitt was beautifully gowned and never looked better in her life. They left the play early.

"Mme. Rejane is charming. I admire her greatly and enjoyed her acting immensely," Miss Nesbitt exclaimed to a reporter for the Post-Dispatch. He quoted a report that was published yesterday.

"I have been vastly annoyed about all these silly stories about me. I am not in hiding," she said.

"The question of your marriage—"

"Pardon me," she interrupted. "I have nothing to say on that subject. I have been horribly treated and am greatly upset by all this notoriety, in fact I am nearly ill."

"Miss Nesbitt is still stopping with me, at my home, 119 West Ninetieth street," Mrs. Caine interjected. "But I want it distinctly understood that Mr. Thaw has not been near my apartment. Miss Nesbitt met him to-day for luncheon at the Holland House, and to-night we dined together."

In denying the stories that have come from Pittsburg, Mr. Thaw said:

"I have communicated with my mother over the telephone, and she has instructed me to deny that she has talked to anyone.

As for Edward Thaw, my brother, coming here for a conference with me—he lives here and came back to New York to rejoin his family, after a trip with my mother to St. Louis."

Mr. Thaw refused to discuss whether or not he is married.

"That is not for me to say," he said.

SMOOTH BOOK AGENT WORKED THEM HARD

Doctor and His Wife Have Three Copies of "Happy Thoughts" For Sale Cheap.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 5.—There is a certain doctor of medicine living not far from New York on the road to Boston, whom it would be dangerous for book agents to approach.

The doctor lives in a tidy little cottage not far from a railroad station, and has his office in his home, with a separate entrance for patients. Remember the separate entrance. One day last week there was a ring at the office bell, and a tall, dark stranger, with a magnetic eye and a square leather handbag, was ushered into the doctor's presence.

"Doctor," began the stranger, "I am not a patient, and I know your time is precious. I only want five minutes of it. You will gladly grant me that when you learn my errand. Have you heard of that wonderful new compilation, entitled 'Happy Thoughts?' No. Ah, doctor, behold it!" And the stranger produced a large, red volume from the square bag. "Only $3, doctor, to introduce it to discriminating persons. A mere song. A fraction of its value." The doctor felt the hypnotic spell; he also perceived that the stranger was good for a long talk. So he handed over $2, received the red volume and the stranger departed.

About an hour later, when the bell rang for luncheon, the doctor divested himself of his professional frock-coat, and putting on a smoking jacket and a red fez, joined his wife in the sittingroom. Almost the first object that met his eyes was a large red volume called "Happy Thoughts" lying on the sittingroom table.

The doctor rubbed his eyes. "Where in thunder did that come from?" he demanded of his wife.

"Well, dear, I suppose I was foolish," she replied, "but I bought it from an agent just a little while ago. He was such a nice-appearing man."

"Jehosephat!" exclaimed the doctor. "Was he a tall, dark man with a dazzling eye?"

"Why, yes, he was," said Mrs. Doctor. "Did you see him?"

'Did I see him!" roared the doctor. Why he sold me a copy of the same book in my office not an hour ago. The scoundrel!"

The doctor's wife looked out of the window. Quick!" she cried: "there's the man now going past the house."

"By Gad! It is," said the doctor. "Just wait till I catch him," and he started for the door.

"Oh, but not in your smoking-jacket," said the wife. "Think how you'd look if there was a scene."

The doctor paused. The book agent had already passed the house. Suddenly Mr. Jones, a neighbor, came in sight, walking in the same direction, towards the railroad station. The doctor opened the door. "Hey, Jones," he shouted. "You see that tall man ahead of you. Catch him and tell him I want to see him a minute." Mr. Jones started ahead on a trot. After a few minutes Mr. Jones was seen returning alone. He had a large red book under his arm.

"I caught him all right, Doc," said Mr. Jones, coming up the walk. He said you had changed your mind and wanted to buy a copy of this book here, 'Happy Thoughts.' He just had time to catch his train, so I gave him the $2 for you. He caught the train all right. Why, what's the matter?"

Wouldn't it make you mad?

Boer War Ball.

A military and fancy dress ball will be given at the Coliseum on Saturday evening, Nov. 19, by the officers, noncommissioned officers and men of the Boer War. The ball will be principally a military one, but in order to lend a tinge of color and life to an event of this kind, it was decided by the committee to make the ball a fancy dress as well as a military affair. By these means, with the effective colors and uniforms of the smartly dressed military men, and the many varied colors that it is possible to use on a fancy dress, the floor on this occasion should be a pretty sight. Prizes will be offered for the best costumes. The first prize of $1,000 will be a diamond sunburst containing over 15 handsome stones.

The hall will be handsomely decorated and the Boer and British colors joined with the flags of the United States. Specially military features will be added, to make the Boer War ball a fitting memorial to the many pleasant months spent in St. Louis during this World's Fair year.

WIFE ABANDONMENT CHARGED.

A warrant has been issued by Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Dalton charging Ellsworth Grether, a real estate man at 1015 Chestnut street, with wife abandonment, as told in late editions of Monday's Post-Dispatch.

Grether was fined $100 by Judge Tracy in the City Hall Police Court Saturday for attacking his wife. She testified that he had beaten her and knocked out two of her teeth. She told the assistant prosecuting attorney that her husband had ejected her from their home at 6157 Ridge avenue, and that she is now living in a room at 1034 Market street.

Motorman Held for Death.

James Spratt, a motorman on the Grand avenue car which crashed into a wagon occupied by William Nixon and Edward James, colored, throwing them to the ground and killing them, Friday, at Grand and Lawton avenues, is held by the police in accordance with the verdict of the coroner's jury, which presenting a finding charging that Spratt was guilty of culpable negligence. He was arrested at the coroner's office. Spratt insists that he was unable to avoid the accident, as he says the wagon could not be seen until it was too late to stop the car.

Ready-to-Wear Hats, Ready-to-Trim Hats and Dress Shapes at 50c on the Dollar

OUR purchase and sale of 7000 Hats has created a furore in the local millinery world. It is regarded as one of the greatest purchases made by any local establishment, and the purchase price establishes a new record, being about 50 per cent of manufacturer's cost.

THESE Hats were bought by one of the largest importing houses in the United States. They were received too late. The entire shipment was turned over to us at less than half manufacturer's cost and we are offering every hat or dress shape in the entire purchase at a correspondingly low figure. The character of the goods is such that they would readily bring their full value. In view of this fact the selling prices are marvelously low.

WE NEVER FAIL A MAN

We promise Nothing but What We Can Fulfill. We are Skillful Workers and Honorable Helpers. Our Practice is Founded on Twenty-four Years of Actual Experience in Special Private Work Among Men. OUR CURES ARE THOROUGH, CERTAIN AND PERMANENT.

OUR GUARANTEE IS $12.50 Not a Dollar Need Be Paid UNTIL CURED

In view of there being so many afflicted with private chronic and pelvic diseases who are treating with quack specialists and inexperienced physicians without receiving any benefit, we have decided to make a special offer to charge only one-half of our regular fee for curing those who are now undergoing treatment elsewhere and are dissatisfied, provided they come to us before Nov. 15, 1904. For instance, if you are afflicted with either Piles, Varicocele, Hydrocele, Stricture or Nervous Decline, our charge for curing either of which, without any complications, is $25.00, we will cure you for $12.50, and accept the money in any way you may wish to pay. We will also cure contagious Blood Poison for $25.00, which is just half our regular fee.

Newly contracted cases cured. All burning and itching, inflammation and unnatural weakness stopped in 24 hours; cures effected in 5 days.

BETTING WIND-UP WAS TALK MOSTLY

Few of the Breezes Created Anything More Serious Than Visit to Bar.

ODDS FAVOR ROOSEVELT.

President Has Best End in Country and New York State—Odds on Herrick.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Election day has come with more real doubt as to what the outcome in this state will be than has been experienced in a decade. The betting odds closed:

On Roosevelt's election—5 to 1.

On Roosevelt carrying New York—5 to 1.

On Herrick's election—2 to 1.

But with these odds up, little real betting was done last night, and of course none is being done today. There is every reason for doubt, and that very doubt has brought about startling charges, denials and counter charges of fraud and colonizing. The Republican state inspector of elections has obtained 12,000 warrants in this city and Brooklyn alone, and has placed more than 1000 of them in the hands of United States secret service men. These latter are against men who are alleged to have fraudulent naturalization papers.

On the other hand the Democrats assert that Governor Odell's machine has already brought half of Southern Canada into the northern tier of New York counties and before noon will have half the voters in Eastern Pennsylvania at the voting booths in adjacent New York counties. Both of these tiers of counties are country districts where the possibilities are great.

The day is simply glorious, clear, crisp and sunshiny. In fact, it is what Southern California calls "a fine large day," for the atmosphere is so clear you can see objects miles distant. This by the way may enable the election officers to see repeaters in time.

Last night's scenes around the political hotels was calmness itself. A reliable authority figured out that less than $800,000 had been bet during the last week. He said this estimate was very liberal, and that the majority of the bets made represented professional money—put up by politicians, brokers and bookmakers. The amateur speculators who take a flyer once in a while on the racetrack or in the political ring, were conspicuous, but few others were out.

The center of attraction was the Hoffman House. A single policeman performed the duty of maintaining order. He had very little trouble in doing so. In previous years it has required the services of a dozen and then once in a while they had to send out for the reserves. The crowd that showed up last night was orderly and apathetic—as to money. They did a lot of talking about betting and averaged a visit to the bar about every ten minutes.

The Fifth Avenue Hotel was absolutely deserted and any Republicans that wandered in there during the evening to make a wager were compelled to drift over to the Hoffman House, where a few of them succeeded. Col. "Pat" Hare, the betting expert of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, said he had not seen a single bet made during the night—the first time such a thing had occurred in the Fifth Avenue Hotel the night before election in 25 years.

COAL MINER DIES UNDER STREET CAR

Accident Occurred Near Edgemont and Body Brought to East St. Louis.

John Gedwell, a young coal miner living at Edgmont, near East St. Louis, was killed by a trolley car a mile north of Edgmont Monday night.

The body was picked up by the car crew and taken to St. Louis, where an inquest will be held.

DEATH EXPLAINED BY ACID BOTTLE

Unidentified Man Found Dead in Cornfield After Swallowing Poisonous Drug.

The body of an unidentified white man, well dressed and apparently 45 years old, was found at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning in a cornfield near Twenty-fourth and Olive streets, East St. Louis.

There were no marks of identification about his clothing or body. He had a knife and a key in his pocket, but no letters or papers. There were no laundry marks or initials on his clothing or hat.

Beside the man's body was an empty bottle and a glass. The bottle was labeled "carbolic acid," and it is believed the man committed suicide by drinking the poison from the glass.

The man was 6 feet tall and weighed 200 pounds. He was well dressed. The body was taken to Kurrus undertaking rooms in East St. Louis, where it awaits identification.

NEW JERSEY REPUBLICANS ARE SCRATCHING STOKES.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 8.—Reports from every section of the state are that clear weather prevails and that an unusually heavy vote is being polled.

Stokes, the Republican candidate for governor, is running slightly behind Roosevelt in the upper counties, but little cutting is being done in the southern end of the state.

WHEN PARKER, ROOSEVELT AND CLEVELAND VOTE

Democratic Candidate Sleeps Late, Takes the Longest Way 'Round to Kingston, Deposits His Ballot and Has His Teeth Inspected.

PRESIDENT'S OVATION AT OYSTER BAY.

Goes in Special Train from Washington, Deposits Ballot No. 165 and Leaves Immediately for the Capital to Hear the Returns.

KINGSTON, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Judge Parker slept later today than he had in many months. It was after 8 o'clock when he arose. His brother, Fred E. Parker, was driven to the station at Esopus to catch a train for New York, where he will vote.

The judge and his secretary, Mr. McCausland, then took the buckboard and drove to Kingston, where they cast their ballots.

The weather was perfect and they decided to take the Eddyville road, which passes through a gap in the mountains and is several miles longer than the main road.

Judge Parker drove up to the old pottery on Greenkill avenue, the voting place of the Third district of the Ninth ward, at 10:40 o'clock. A crowd of Kingston neighbors had assembled to welcome him and he was received with cheers.

As the judge stepped from his wagon Ralph Finnegan, a 6-year-old boy, was the first to shake hands with the candidate.

"I hope you will be elected," he told the judge.

"Thank you," the judge replied, with a laugh. "You are a great boy."

Several friends claimed the judge's attention, and he shook hands many times before reaching the pottery. The crowd within the pottery also cheered and the judge was compelled to hold a brief informal reception before he could reach the voting officials. He was handed a ballot and at the same time was asked the usual questions. Judge Parker gave his name and answered that his residence was 20 Pine Grove avenue, which is the home of his son-in-law, Rev. Hall.

After complying with all the formalities, the judge passed into a booth and remained half a minute. He came out and handed his folded ballot to a clerk, who deposited it and announced "Alton Brooks Parker votes ballot 147."

Then there was a flash and several photographers obtained pictures as the judge's ballot was dropped into the box. More cheers followed. The judge inquired if a flashlight was necessary on so fine a day. He shook hands with the policeman on duty at the door and walked out. After conversing with friends for a moment, he drove up town to give his secretary, Mr. McCausland, an opportunity to vote.

Later the judge went to the office of his dentist to keep an annual appointment. He makes a practice of having his teeth examined at least once each year, and in order that he shall not forget, always goes on election day after casting his ballot.

Maj. and Mrs. Alfred Tanner entertained Judge Parker at luncheon. Mrs. Tanner is the sister of Mrs. Parker.

After luncheon the judge drove back to Esopus, intending to receive the election returns at Rosemount tonight.

Roosevelt Goes to Oyster Bay.

OYSTER BAY, L. I., Nov. 8.—President Roosevelt and his party arrived here at 9:41 a. m. today on a special train from Long Island City. President Roosevelt was driven directly from the station in the carriage of Mrs. J. West Roosevelt to the polling place in the Fifth precinct of Oyster Bay. There he cast his ballot—No. 165.

The polling place is located in the second story of the Fisher building, in East Main street.

The President was received with enthusiasm by an immense crowd. He sprang briskly from the carriage and ran upstairs, entered the polling place and shook hands with the judges of the election. He was given his ballot and retired immediately to one of the booths, remaining in it scarcely more than half a minute. As he came out and handed his ballot to the presiding judge a photograph was taken. As he turned away from the ballot box he was cordially greeted by many old friends and acquaintances who had gathered to see him. Descending the stairs he entered the carriage with Mrs. J. West Roosevelt and went for a drive. As he drove away the crowd cheered him enthusiastically.

The President's reception at the station was notably cordial. The station building had been decorated with flags and bunting, and a crowd of several hundred people had assembled to greet him. He was received with cheers and the waving of flags as he left his car.

At Long Island City the President was joined by several friends, among them being F. C. Travers, W. Emlen Roosevelt and his daughter, Miss Christine Roosevelt, and Alexander Russell, Jr. At Richmond Hill Jacob Riis boarded the train and came to Oyster Bay with him. At Jamaica W. J. Youngs, United States district attorney for the southern district of New York, also joined the party.

He will hear election returns in Washington tonight.

Cleveland Votes at Princeton, N. J.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 8.—Former President Grover Cleveland voted at the 1st district polling place. When he appeared the long line gave way and allowed him to enter at once. The ex-president came out of the booth and after a few words with a friend he sauntered back to Westlands. Mrs. Cleveland herself is much interested in the outcome of the presidential contest, and made arrangements today to have the returns delivered at her home, where a number of friends will be on hand to receive the news this evening.

Bryan Votes Amid Cheering.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 8.—William J. Bryan voted at Normal precinct, near Fairview, his country home, near Lincoln, shortly after noon. His presence at the polls was cheered by a small crowd of Democrats.

This precinct gave Gov. Mickey a plurality of 15 two years ago. Mr. Bryan thinks his precinct will be for Berge for governor this year, and he also predicts the election of Berge. After voting, Mr. Bryan returned to his home and will receive the election returns there.

NEW YORK CALLS REJANE A GENIUS

Celebrated French Actress Reappears in America After an Absence of Ten Years.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—It has been ten years since Mme. Gabrielle Rejane last acted in New York, but the memory of her success then was sufficient to attract the finest audience of the season when she returned to the Lyric Theater last night to begin a four weeks' engagement which will include the best of her successes of the intervening decade. Society gathered as it has not gathered since the closing performance of the last opera season. How thoroughly it understood the plays of the night—for there were two—would be difficult to state, for the language spoken was French and the applause which frequently broke out in the wrong place had a suspicious ring.

There is a good deal of dissembling interwoven with the fervid interest of first night Broadway audiences when French drama holds the boards, but of the keen appreciation of this great French actress' illuminating pantomime there can be no question. She is a genius, and the unmistakable stamp of genius is upon all she does.

Ten years have physically rounded out Mme. Rejane, but they have left no telltale lines upon her features. Her expressive, typically Latin face is still crowned by its wealth of tawny hair. She is in complete control of a seemingly infinite variety of expressions. Her diction is a delightful oasis in the season's wilderness of elecutionary sins. Her enunciation is perfect, her tones are limpid and musical—she shows the perfection of French dramatic art in an all-important branch which is universally neglected in America. Her technical mastery of her art is complete, and it is backed by wonderful resource of temperament and magnetic force. Her first play, a comedy by Georges de Porto-Riche, entitled "Amoureuse," reveals the woman in her most engaging moods.

WHAT THE MINISTER SAYS
Is Most Convincing.

"I thought I would write you what Pyramid Pile Cure has done for me. I had a most aggravated case of bleeding piles; indeed I dreaded when I had to go to stool. One fifty-cent box cured me. I feel like a new man. I have recommended it to others as being the most wonderful remedy known. It is indeed a great blessing to suffering humanity. You are at liberty to use this for all it is worth, and I hope it may do good." Rev. W. E. Carr, 355 No. Holbrook St., Danville, Va.

Clergymen (like all professional men who lead sedentary lives) are especially addicted to piles, in various forms, and are continually on the lookout for a remedy which will give relief, with little or no idea of obtaining a cure.

Recognizing this fact, Rev. Mr. Carr consents to the use of his name in order that other sufferers may know there is a cure called Pyramid Pile Cure, which is sold by druggists everywhere for the low price of fifty cents a package, and which will bring about for every one afflicted with piles, the same beneficial results as in his own case. Be careful to accept no substitutes, and remember that there is no remedy "just as good."

A little book, describing the causes and cure of piles is published by Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., and will be sent free for the asking. All sufferers are advised to write for it, as it contains valuable information on the subject of piles.

HOWARD THURSTON.

Thurston is the last and the best of the illusionists, or magicians, or sleight-of-hand people—whatever they choose to call themselves. The things he does, or appears to do, are enough to send one to a firm belief in spirits and spooks. He hypnotises a woman, puts her in a casket, and then raises her into the air, where she twirls and lies suspended on atmosphere until the spectators begin to believe it is all so. He does other clever and apparently unexplainable things.

Then there are Ziska and King. Ziska does tricks and King does monkey-business which is not a help to the show. It is much more amusing to see Ziska pull gold fish out of the air over the heads of his audience than it is to hear King smash plates and rattle tin pans.

And there are also the Tanakas, Japanese illusionists, who are pretty close to the star class themselves.

It is not all magic and mysticism, however. Clamton, a dazzling brunette, with the form of a Venus and the wit and vivacity of a Parisienne, gets upon a trapeze in high heels, picture hat and long skirt, removes the superfluous wearing apparel with a way that is amusing instead of risque, and then swings and twists and hangs by nothing or but a little more until the spectator becomes very, very dizzy. And all the time she is a comedienne as well as what the play bill calls her—an "aerial artiste."

Lynn Welcher, monologist; four funny vocalists and knockabout people; Lavender and Tomson, in a football sketch, and Campbell and Johnson, trick bicyclists, all have prominent places with amusing specialties.

One thing worthy of mention is the fact that there was not, during the whole show, a word about politics.

CRAWFORDS EXPANDING; MISS BRINK'S FRIENDS.

C. P. Crawford, son of Leslie M. Crawford, proprietor of the Crawford Theater and the Odeon, has added another house to the family string. Mr. Crawford closed today a deal whereby he becomes the lessee of the Pickwick Theater on Washington avenue, just west of Jefferson, for a period of four years.

He will open the theater Nov. 20 with a stock company, the opening play to be "Held By the Enemy." Mr. Crawford will go to New York this week to secure his players.

It is said that the young man made the Pickwick deal just at the moment when his father was about to get it. Inasmuch as the Odeon, which the elder Crawford owns, is also to have a stock company this winter, the Crawford stock situation is getting decidedly interesting.

Few players have received a finer ovation from friends and townspeople than was that given Miss Julia Brink at the Grand last night. Miss Brink is one of the principals in "The Girl From Dixie," and her home is over at Edwardsville, Ill. A big delegation of her friends came down from the Illinois city last night. They filled the entire front of the parquet at the Grand, and made city people go way back and sit down while Edwardsville, up front and tremendously pleased with its townswoman, did the honors in fine fashion. Miss Brink was presented with a bouquet of chrysanthemums so huge and so gorgeous that it seemed that some of her zealous young admirers might have been out at the Fair uprooting the Japanese Imperial Gardens. She acted admirably under the fire of so much admiration, and the big audience looking on enjoyed the event fully.

THE COLUMBIA BILL ABOUNDS IN CLEVERNESS.

There is magic and mysticism in this week's bill at the Columbia until one comes from there making vague passes with his hands, saling imaginary cards over the street, and expecting every second to see American flags or gold fish spring into view from the hat of the man in front of him.

According to the New York Journal of Commerce and Commercial Bulletin of Nov. 3 we were the only retail house from St. Louis among the purchasers.

People want silks this year more than ever. Realizing this, we sent to this Auction one of our buyers with privileges that made him ready to seize any trade advantage. By taking goods in the largest quantities and so avoiding the division into small lots, we succeeded in cutting off the small bidders and so kept down the prices. We carried off practically everything we wanted at our own price. These Silks are of the best. Many were the competitors there, but they were awed by the large lots.

SILKS! SILKS! PEAU DE SOIES, TAFFETAS, LOUISINES, MESSALINES, etc., etc., till you'll marvel at the rustle and bustle in our Silk Department when they go on sale.

Don't Miss It! The Grandest of Opportunites to Buy for Present and Future Use.

ROBBERS' PLOT WAS FOILED

Man Who Overheard Plans for Robbing Car Barns Gave Information to Police.

Police are holding William J. Gallagher, 21 years old, of 317 North Channing avenue, until an alleged plot to rob the barns of the United Railways Co., at Laclede and Compton avenues, Monday night can be investigated.

Police believe robbery of the barn has been averted. Patrolman O'Connell of the Eighth district was told by a citizen that he heard of a plot to rob the barn by three men who were talking in a saloon at Olive street and Lindell boulevard Monday afternoon.

The citizen, whose name the police decline to make public, stated that he was seated at a table in the saloon when three men entered, and, in a low voice, began to discuss the details of the proposed robbery. They were to meet between 11 and 12 o'clock at Olive street and Channing avenue and go from there to the car sheds. Patrolman O'Connell reported the matter to Lieut. O'Brien of the Eighth district.

Gallagher was arrested at 8 o'clock Monday night on the description furnished the patrolman. He denied knowledge of any intended robbery and stated he was a traveling salesman from Wilmington, Del.

FAILED ONCE IN 35 YEARS; DEAD

"Sergeant Tom" Allen of the Police Department Has Made Last Report for Duty.

HE NEVER HAD FAILED BEFORE.

Veteran of the Department Died of Heart Disease After Faithful Service.

Sergeant Tom Allen.

Sergt. Tom Allen, after 35 years of service in the St. Louis police department, is dead. He was found in his room at a hotel at Eighth and Pine streets by Capt. Creecy of the Third district at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning. He had been dead for perhaps 12 hours. He died of heart disease.

At his death Allen was only a "private," covering a beat in the Third district. Twice in the 35 years of his continuous service he had been raised to the rank of sergeant at the intercession of business men around the Merchants' Exchange, a beat that Allen walked for many years.

Both times he was reduced to the rank of patrolman because younger men, more fortunate in making important arrests, were chosen for promotion, and Allen's reduction was not deemed a loss to the department.

Sergt. "Tom," as he was called, was faithful in the performance of his duties. He never drank. No one remembers that he ever was disciplined. He remained on the force through all changes of administration.

While a sergeant "Tom" Allen covered the "red light" district formerly at Pine and Chestnut streets, west of Eighteenth. He covered it so well that complaint was never made of lack of police, failure to protect or friendship or partiality for any class or individual.

At the opening of the World's Fair Allen was transferred from the Central district to the Third district, at Seventh and Soulard streets. He was given a night beat for the first time in a number of years, and as he was growing aged the change in habits was too much for him.

Allen was a bachelor. He was about 60 years old and had no relatives in St. Louis.

Two sisters, whom it is understood, he supported, survive him in Watertown, N. Y., where Allen was born.

He came to St. Louis when a young man and was not here long before he joined the police force.

His only sport or diversion was hunting and fishing. Some years ago he joined the Stonewall Hunting and Fishing Club.

Allen did not report for duty Monday night. It was the first time he had been known to fail. A policeman was sent to his hotel, but returned and said that he could not awaken Allen. Lieut. Mansfield of Central district was telephoned and sent a man to Allen's hotel.

But "Sergeant Tom" was past waking. Capt. Creecy of the Third district telegraphed Allen's sisters in Watertown, N. Y. He will take charge of the funeral. Arrangements have not been perfected.

BROWNLOW "SASSED" PAYNE; JOB GONE

Representative of Postoffice Department Marked for Dismissal After Election.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—Col. John B. Brownlow of Missouri, who represented the postoffice department at the World's Fair, is to lose his $1600 a year clerkship in the department as the result of the blunt way in which he told the late Postmaster-General Payne he was honest.

When Brownlow turned in his account of expenditures, he did not set forth in detail what he had done with the money and Gen. Payne asked for an amended account. The tenor of this letter did not suit Col. Brownlow and he gave vent to his feelings in a real "sassy" letter, in which he referred to the postoffice scandal, which did not strike his department.

Gen. Payne called his subordinate to account for insubordination and had auditors make an especial investigation of his accounts. They proved correct and Brownlow had vindication that far, but his dismissal was recommended on the ground that he had written an insulting letter to the head of the department reflecting upon his conduct. Col. Brownlow pleaded justification in that, according to his view, Mr. Payne had insulted him. He also took the matter up with Postmaster-General Wynne after the appointment of the latter, and asked him to confirm his appointment, made by Mr. Payne, as representative of the department to the Lewis and Clark Exposition to be held at Portland.

Mr. Wynne, however, refused to appoint him to the Lewis and Clark Exposition, on the ground that the position properly belonged to an official of the department, either as assistant of some sort or the chief of a division, and not to a clerk. Instead of Col. Brownlow, Chief Clerk Merritt O. Chance will represent the postoffice department at Portland.

RIOTS ARE FEARED IN NEW YORK CITY POLLING PLACES

Three Thousand Watchers Appointed by the State Superintendent of Elections and Supplied With Long Lists of Fraudulent Registrations.

EAST SIDE TOUGHS ATTACK THE POLICE.

Two Persons Were Injured Before the Polls Had Been Open 20 Minutes and Police Headquarters Is Filled With Arrested Voters.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Almost perfect weather conditions prevailed in Greater New York, and early indications pointed to a heavy vote in to-day's election. From the moment the polls opened at 6 a. m. the booths in many election districts were filled and lines of men stood awaiting their turn to deposit a ballot.

While perfect order prevailed in most sections of the city, trouble began in some quarters almost at the start, and arrests for alleged illegal voting began almost simultaneously with the opening of the polls.

In some cases arrests were accompanied by disorderly demonstrations, and at least two persons, a policeman and a citizen, were injured before voting had been in progress 20 minutes.

The first surprise of the day was sprung by State Superintendent of Elections Morgan, when he distributed nearly three thousand deputies representing his office through the election districts of the greater city.

It had been expected that the 800 deputies which the superintendent of elections is authorized to appoint would be reinforced today by about 200 men, including a large number of secret service agents, whose whole attention would be directed toward the holders of alleged illegal naturalization papers.

Unlimited Watchers Provided by Morgan.

It developed today, however, that Mr. Morgan had found that under a section of the metropolitan election district law the state superintendent or any of his deputies is empowered to call on any person to assist him in the performance of his duty. This law raised practically all restrictions regarding appointment of deputies, and 2000 additional men were sworn.

The men selected for this work are volunteers, and they went on duty at the opening of the polls, to remain until the votes are counted.

The presence of the deputies was early in evidence and hundreds of men were challenged during the first few hours. All of the deputies were supplied with a list of registered voters who were to be challenged. This list included the name of every person whose right to register was challenged. Hundreds of other names also have been placed on the list as a reserve of investigations conducted by Mr. Morgan's office since the registration closed.

Arrests for alleged illegal voting began early and the officers at police headquarters soon had all the business they could attend to in the election cases alone.

The first case reported was that of Winfield Scott Moore, a customs inspector, who was arrested in the Twenty-first election district of the Fifth assembly district. It is alleged that Moore's name appeared on the registration lists merely as Winfield Scott, without the "Moore." Moore claimed that the registration clerks had erred.

Bump the Police On East Side.

The first real trouble was reported from turbulent Fifth assembly district in lower East Side. A gang of 50 or 75 men, apparently acting upon a prearranged plan surrounded the polling place and began to make it unpleasant for the policemen on guard there.

They rushed the booth and jostled the officer who stood at the door. Other policemen came to the assistance of the assaulted officer and the mob finally was dispersed. In the melee one of the policemen and one of the assailants was injured. Similar disturbances in which the police had to drive off other gangs occurred in other polling places in the district.

In the district in the lower part of the city the early morning balloting was very heavy. Nearly one-third of the normal vote had been cast during the first two hours and the leaders predicted a record vote before the polls closed at 5 o'clock. Farther up town the early hours passed quietly, but the voters began to turn out in good volume during the forenoon.

Magistrates were sitting in all sections of the city to give an immediate hearing to men arrested on charges of illegal voting and the prisoners were arraigned as soon as they reached the station house.

Many of them were successful in proving their right to cast their ballot and were promptly released. At the West Forty-seventh street station 14 arrests in election cases were made before 8 o'clock, but the deputies were not able to present sufficient evidence to hold any of them and the prisoners were discharged.

Colored Inspectors Were Too Slow.

The board of elections was informed during the forenoon that in one of the election districts of the Nineteenth assembly district, where more than 700 negroes are registered, the ballots were being handled so slowly that unless more speed was shown many would not have a chance to cast their ballots. Word was at once sent to the eight inspectors in the district, all of whom were colored men, unless matters were expedited they would be removed.

Reports of clashes between would-be voters the police and election officers came from many election districts, but up to noon no trouble of particularly serious nature had occurred. As the day progressed arrests for alleged illegal voting became more frequent than during the early hours, and at some of the station houses warrants came in faster than they could be served.

A very heavy vote was reported in Kings County (Brooklyn), and it was estimated that 65 per cent of the total vote had been cast at 10:30 a. m. Up to that hour about 100 arrests had been made for alleged illegal registration. Four of these arrested were federal employes in the treasury department at Washington. They were taken to court, but were later discharged after making satisfactory explanations and were permitted to vote.

DEFAULTER SEEN IN PARIS.

Courtney Shoe Co. Given Judgment Against Selby Barnes.

The Courtney Shoe Co. of St. Louis will realize on the property of Selby Barnes, former secretary and treasurer of the company, who defaulted a few months ago, leaving a shortage of $25,000. Judgment against Barnes was given the shoe company in Circuit court, as told in late editions of Monday's Post-Dispatch.

Discovery of Barnes' shortage was by accident and was thought to be small. He promised to make good at once. While an investigation was being made he disappeared.

A St. Louis man reported having seen Barnes recently in Paris. He was poorly dressed, aged and seemed miserable. He avoided the St. Louisan.

BUTLER FORCES IN OPEN FIGHT ON DEMOCRATS

Throwing Off the Mask, Lieutenants of Former Boss Are Urging Followers to Vote the Straight Republican Ticket.

Hawes Seeks to Prevent Fraud in 12th District.

Harry B. Hawes, president of the Jefferson Club, announced at noon today that he would offer a reward of $1000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any Democratic judge or clerk in the Twelfth congressional district guilty of election frauds.

The Twelfth district embraces the Fifth, Sixth, Fifteenth, Fourteenth, Nineteenth and Twenty-third wards, in which the Butler forces claim control.

Mr. Hawes declared that, notwithstanding the opposition of the Butlers, these wards would go Democratic if an honest count were assured.

The Butler forces have thrown away their masks and are conducting an energetic fight in all parts of the city against the Democratic ticket. Three of the Democratic candidates two or three days ago called on James Campbell, the broker, and asked him whether he could be counted upon to use his influence, as usual, in support of the Democratic ticket. He replied in the negative, saying:

"I have nothing against the men on the Democratic ticket, for they are nearly all good men and it is a good ticket. But this is a fight between Ed Butler and Harry Hawes, and Hawes must be beaten. There is no use in arguing the matter, for I intend to stand by Ed Butler and to do what I can to beat the Democratic ticket."

Mr. Campbell also stated to an acquaintance at the World's Fair recently that it was his opinion that Sager would be elected circuit attorney, and that probably the entire Republican ticket would win.

Butlerites for Straight Ticket.

Hawes leaders assert that the Butler forces are fighting the Democratic ticket to a man.

They say that Edward Butler issued orders Monday night to all his henchmen not to content themselves with scratching Folk and the individual candidates to them objectionable, but to simplify matters by voting the straight Republican ticket.

These orders, it is asserted, were issued to the Butler following in every ward of the Twelfth congressional district, which consists of the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Fourteenth, Twenty-second, Twenty-third and Twenty-fifth wards.

Circumstances developed Tuesday morning indicating that the Republican managers in St. Louis were cognizant of the friendliness of the Butlers to their ticket.

An instance cited occurred in connection with the election commissioners. When Chairman McCaffery and Judge John M. Wood, the Democratic members of the election board, heard of the Butler order they requested Louis P. Aloe, their Republican colleague, to join them in requesting Chief of Police Kiely to send a policeman to each polling place in the Twelfth district, the policeman to remain within the polling place while the polls were open. Mr. Aloe, it is said, consented to this and Chief Kiely designated the men for this special duty.

It appears that State Chairman Niedringhaus and other leaders at the Commercial building headquarters learned of this move, and at once communicated with Mr. Aloe. The result was Mr. Aloe rescinded his action and withdrew his name from the request to Chief Kiely.

Chief Kiely sent the policemen to the polling places, nevertheless, but both the Democratic and Republican judges refused to permit them to enter. In nearly every instance the Democratic judges in the Twelfth district are Butler men.

Despite this situation, the Hawes leaders declare that the entire Democratic ticket will be elected, and that the loss of the Butler following will not cost the Democratic nominees more than two thousand votes, if there is a fair count.

Harry M. Walsh, attorney and Butler man, was an early caller on Chairman Niedringhaus at Republican headquarters. He remained more than an hour. Mr. Walsh was evidently especially interested in the Fourth ward, the ward which Thomas E. Kinney now represents in the House of Delegates and in which he is credited with political mastery.

Kinney is not a Butler man. Although his ward is in the Twelfth district, he carries it against the Butlers.

Mr. Walsh declared that outrages against the ballot were being perpetrated in this ward. He said he had driven through several wards early in the morning, and that the Fourth was the only ward in which he had detected what appeared to be frauds. He said he recognized crooks in the line of voters at one polling place. He was insistent in urging Chairman Niedringhaus to do something to stop the work of the men early in the voting day.

After listening to Mr. Walsh, Chairman Niedringhaus dictated a letetr to Judge McCaffery and Judge Wood of the Board of Election Commissioners, was "handing out slips to a gang of repeaters." He said the gang could be identified by means of one of its members—a man hardly 5 feet tall, weighing 125 pounds, and having strikingly red hair.

"Is there any way," Mr. Niedringhaus asked, "in which you can notify the judges and clerks and warn them of this crowd of election thieves?"

Mr. Walsh, when asked the object of his visit, said:

"It is merely in the interest of a fair election. I want to see all frauds in this election punished. I am a Democrat, and am going to vote the Democratic ticket, with the exception of Mr. Folk and two others. He asked me not to vote for him. He said he didn't want the votes of the friends of the Butlers, and I am one of them. But I'm acting individually, not for the Butlers, now."

HER LAST RIDE IN "HURRY-UP" WAGON

Potter's Field Resting Place of Jennie Seltz, Who Died in Police Cart.

ROUSED FROM SLEEP ON WAY

Awakened in Cell, She Was Hustled to Court Where She Never Appeared.

No detail is lacking to make absolute the degradation of the death of Jennie Seltz, whose body lies unclaimed at the morgue.

Homeless and friendless, asleep on the sidewalk at midnight, she was picked up and taken to the Chestnut street police station. "Drunk on the street," was the charge. Three hours later she was taken to the holdover at the Four Courts. On the way to the City Hall Police Court in a patrol wagon she became sick. She was left at the door of the City Dispensary. The doctor said she was suffering from the effects of the excessive use of alcoholic stimulants. She died on the way to the City Hospital in an ambulance. Her body was taken to the morgue. Potter's field will be her resting place.

Jennie Seltz was known to the police of the Central district as an "old-timer." She had long been a victim of the craving for drink. She had been arrested more than once for drunkenness. She had no place that she could call home. She had no relatives who would own her and no friends who could be of any help to her.

It was said that once she had been beautiful and had had a good home and had been surrounded by friends, but nobody took the trouble to remember the details of her history, and she had no wish to recount them.

It was five minutes past midnight when Policemen Jeams and Walsh of the Chestnut Stret Sub-Station, walking a beat together, came upon the form of a woman, huddled in a heap on the sidewalk at Second street and Clark avenue, asleep.

They shook her and awakened her. She cursed them sleepily for disturbing her, her eyelids closed again, and she would have toppled over again if they had not caught her and brought her with a lurch to her feet.

It was not far to the station and they did not call the wagon, but walked her there.

Nap in Cell, Then Hustled Away.

"Back again, Jennie," said the desk sergeant, as the woman stood blinking at the office lights. Her answer was inarticulate.

"Take her back," he commanded the turnkey, and she was put into a cell. She dropped down on a bench and was again asleep.

At 3 o'clock she was aroused, hustled out to the waiting wagon and taken with a lot of others to the holdover at the Four Courts. She slept again until it was time for her and others to be taken to the City Hall Police Court. In the patrol wagon, at Twelfth and Market streets, Policeman Erwin, who was in charge of the load, noticed that she was sick. He directed the driver to go through the alley west of the old City Hall and stop at the Dispensary door.

She was carried in and the physician in charge said she was in such a condition from the excessive use of intoxicants that she could not be taken into court.

He pressed a button and a bell clanged in the yard. "Hospital," said the physician to the ambulance driver who stuck his head in at the door.

The ambulance was at the door in a moment. The woman was placed inside. The gong sounded and the wagon rolled out of the alley.

Ten minutes later an electric bell sounded in the reception room at the City Hospital. That meant that an ambulance was coming in at the gate. It drew up at the door and the attendants bore the stretcher into the room and placed it on the floor.

"You've brought her to the wrong place," the doctor said, "she's dead. Take her body to the morgue."

An autopsy there confirmed the diagnosis of the desk sergeant at the Chestnut street station and the physician at the Dispensary.

A shallow grave in potter's field is all that remains for Jennie Seltz.

DIVORCE FOR MRS. F. C. KEANEY

Woman Who Suffered Attack With Carbolic Acid Granted Absolute Decree.

Mrs. Maude Estes Keaney has been granted an absolute divorce from her husband, Frank C. Keaney, as told in late editions of Monday's Post-Dispatch. She also was granted the custody of her little daughter, Mildred. The decree was by default, the husband never having appeared since May 11, 1903, when he attacked his wife on Beaumont street and threw carbolic acid in her face.

Mrs. Keaney is a daughter of H. R. Estes of 5833 Julian avenue. She eloped to Belleville, Ill., with Keaney, Nov. 30, 1900. She was then 17 years old. She lived with her husband until Jan. 19, 1903.

Aside from this decree granted by Judge McDonald Monday, he granted freedom to forty other pleading husbands and wives. In many cases maiden names were restored to wives, while in others the custody of children was the principal question.

Cured of Asthma

After Years of Terrible Suffering.

Mary Josephine Bozy, Floyd Knob, Ind., writes: "After suffering untold agonies for 32 years from Asthma, I was cured by Schiffmann's Asthma Cure. I used to be so bad that I could not move without help, but I can now do all my own work." Another writes: "My little boy 7 years old has been a sufferer for several years, sometimes so bad off that we could not hold him in bed, expecting any moment for him to breathe his last. Doctors did him no good and we had almost given up in despair, when through accident we heard of Schiffmann's Asthma Cure, tried it and it almost instantly relieved him." Mrs. D. C. Harris, Elbow P. SLAPPED WOMAN ELECTION JUDGE

Colorado Man Carries Equality at Polls to Extreme and Is Shot.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Nov. 8.—Chivalry toward a woman suffragist enthusiast brought about the shooting of Ed Doyle, a saloon keeper, in the Midway polling place today after he had slapped Mrs. Kennedy, a Democratic judge. A constable on duty at the polls who shot Doyle, was severely beaten before he used his revolver.

Doyle's resentment of Mrs. Kennedy's exercise of her official rights brought about an argument. Mrs. Kennedy replied spiritedly to Doyle's forcible charges and statements.

Doyle became more angry as the dispute continued, and finally struck the judge, who determinedly sought to defend herself.

Doyle completely lost his control and attacked Mrs. Kennedy as for a rough-and-tumble fight. When the constable, attracted from the outside, ordered him to desist, Doyle threw Mrs. Kennedy back and attacked him.

The constable soon realized he was no match for the thoroughly aroused man and drew his revolver. Doyle was only slightly wounded.

Mrs. Kennedy soon repaired the rents in her badly disarranged clothing and insisted on continuing her work.

EX-MAYOR ADJUDGED INSANE.

L. de Lisle Ordered Taken to City Asylum by County Court.

Leon de Lisle, former Mayor and member of the town council of Florissant, was taken to the City Insane Asylum Tuesday by order of the St. Louis County Court.

De Lisle is 50 years old. He has been a resident of Florissant for twenty-five years, was twice mayor, and several times member of the town council. He was deputy beer inspector during Gov. Stephens' administration. De Lisle has been ill for several months and has been at the Alexian Brothers' Hospital, 3933 South Broadway.

HARD TO VOTE FOR ROOSEVELT

It was reported to the Election Commissioners' office Tuesday morning that the two Republican judges and one Republican clerk of election in the Tenth precinct of the Fourth ward, located at 1711 Morgan street, refused to take their places when voting began, and the precinct is without Republican officials.

It is further stated that the Democratic judges refuse to put their initials on the back of Republican ballots, and that therefore the only way to vote a legal Republican ballot is to scratch a Democratic one and write in the names of the Republicans from top to bottom.

The Democratic judges hold that they are not required by law to put their initials on Republican ballots, holding that this is the duty of the Republican judges. As every ballot to be legal must have the initials of a judge on its back, Republicans in that precinct have their troubles.

Henry Gielber and William Hunse were the Republican judges, and E. H. Lofthagen was the Republican clerk for this precinct. At the time of the registration there was trouble between the Republican and Democratic officials, and when the smoke of argument cleared away the Democrats were in command.

QUADRENNIAL SCHOOL OF POLITICS.

There is a loud complaint against quadrennial elections. We are told that business is disturbed, the people unnecessarily excited and public policy too often interrupted by these uproars every four years.

But there is another side to it. We have a summer school of politics and all the people learn something of politics. Think of the number of American citizens who last May wondered if a man might serve three terms as President. They all know now; and four years hence, just when a new crop of inquirers begins to ripen and the questioners of 1904 begin to forget what the answer was we shall have another canvass and all doubts are once more solved.

Then, take the tariff. Many a man who believed in a high tariff last May is now convinced of the superiority of a tariff for revenue only and vice versa. They are educated. They know how to vote. And the same may be said of militarism, big stickism, etc.

Seriously a political people can derive great advantage from a periodical discussion of principles and policies. And when we recall how quickly many of us forgot the doctrines held sacred as essentially American and turned our backs on them in 1898, there is some reason to believe that once in four years is not too often to direct our minds to such subjects.

The arrest of Rev. T. J. Aylward was an unfortunate example of official zeal without discretion. In cases involving a charge so serious as crime against the naturalization laws prosecuting officers are expected to be reasonably sure before they act. It is no light matter to hold up a man to public suspicion by placing him under arrest and making a formal charge against him. There ought to be something substantial under official accusation of crime.

FOUR BABIES OR FOURTEEN?

Prof. Edward A. Ross of the University of Nebraska, who is said to be the originator of the phrase "race suicide," shows by general deduction from statistics that the ideal family is one of four children. That is, if every married pair have four children the population will be kept up.

Of the four, one will die before reaching maturity, one will not marry. The other two will just replace the two parents.

In order then to insure this result, be it enacted that every married pair have four children—these four and no more. Let it be further enacted that two of the babies be girls and two boys, for we don't want any surplus of either.

All this is very important, intensely interesting and more or less diverting. But is the prosperity of a nation one of mere numbers? We are uproariously prosperous with 80,000,000 inhabitants. Is a continuance of this condition dependent upon four babies in every family, and a stationary population?

In the old days when men of science did not evolve fits and fads out of statistics there were families of eight, 10 and 12, and from among these came stalwart, industrious, happy men and women. They weren't so rich as we are, but they did things, and did them without standing off and calling attention to the marvelous fact.

So, on the whole, what's the difference—four babies or 14? Four may be enough, but think of the racket of joy 14 would make.

A Congressional inquiry into campaign funds such as Bourke Cockran proposes is urgently needed. Mr. Roosevelt's letter raises the issue and it will not down until settled on the basis of honesty and public interest.

A VERY HIGH ART.

Mr. Henry W. Boynton is attempting to define the difference between journalism and literature. "Journalism," he says, "as an exercise of the recording function is a useful trade, and in its connecting office, it takes rank as a profession. But it is never an art."

When he speaks of "the exercise of its recording function," Mr. Boynton probably means that it is a newspaper's business to state facts. There is no more difficult art than that of making a record through which facts will appear plainly and truthfully as they are in their reality. It is an art as yet beyond most of the "modern sciences," for in none of their literature, as yet, are facts stated so clearly and comprehensively as to be self-defining to all readers of ordinary intelligence.

By "the commenting office" of a newspaper, Mr. Boynton probably means that it is a newspaper's business to comprehend facts, not only detached as they generally appear in life, but in their connection, so that their final meaning and results in life will appear in advance of its development.

This is the "highest art" to which the human mind can address itself. It includes all others.

If newspapers could always state facts, clearly and accurately; if they could always make them intelligible in their general connection with other facts, "journalism" would differ from literature, for literature has never yet succeeded in doing this. It is the object of all written and [illegible] words, or at least it ought to be. Wherever or how [illegible] words are printed, the art in them ought to be the high [illegible] telling the truth and making it the plain truth.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

A DELIGHTFUL LUNCHEON.

To the Post-Dispatch.

The undersigned, on behalf of the congressional committee on entertainment of the Interparliamentary Union, desire to express their sincere gratitude for the courtesies extended by you on the occasion of the visit to St. Louis.

Our distinguished visitors thoroughly enjoyed the delightful luncheon given by you in their honor. Very respectfully,

RICHARD BARTHOLDT, Chairman.
THEO. E. BURTON, Committee.
R. F. BROUSARD, Secretary.

OVERSPRINKLED STREETS.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I sincerely believe that "H. W. K." expresses the opinion of many people of our city. The incessant wetting of streets is the source of many accidents which we attribute to other causes. A wet, muddy car rail is certainly dangerous. Likewise a wet asphalt street is a terror to cyclists, whose wheels slip from under them. An asphalt street should be swept, not soaked. The floors of the cars would be greatly benefited by dry streets. If the city officials would but spend the money which is used for sprinkling to increase the number of street cleaners I am positive that the result would be a great stride toward better street conditions. M. BOUVET.

LONG COURTSHIP AND MARRIAGE.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

About a week ago I noticed an article in your paper by Nixola Greeley-Smith on "Long Courtships," in which she compares long engagements and marriage to a "plunge into an ice-packed river in the month of January." Now, with all due respect for the writer of this article, whose authority on these matters I do not wish to question, permit me to say that judging generally from personal observations a fitter comparison would be "a fall into a caldron of hot water, at a temperature of about 212 degrees Fahrenheit."

As a matter of course there are cases where the water is "just right" and remains so throughout life, but sad to say, in the present era, these cases are becoming so rare as to be almost unworthy of mention. But let us not criticise the poor mortals. Are they not "more to be pitied than censured?" WILL HUNTER.

ANOTHER MODEL LOVE LETTER.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Here is a sample love letter that ought to melt the heart of Mary White's sweetheart:

My Own Darling Roger: Since I have returned this fall your heart does not seem to beat so loud for your Mary. Why, oh! why art thou so cold? Is there another one in my place? You know I love you so much that I would fly to the ends of the earth with you. You imagine I do not like to live in Belleville, but with my treasure by my side to love and adore, I could even live in New York and be contented. You must love me, if you want to or not, so if you think your heart is cold come up and see me once and I will show you how much I adore my beautiful darling. You are so pretty I could kill the other girls that look at you. Now I am crying again and I feel like leaping off the bridge, but I will wait and wait for your coming and with many hugs and kisses will I greet you, my one angel and darling. With a big kiss I am ready to die for you. Your little pet. MARY.

A PLEA FOR THE TEACHER.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

We notice in one of the morning papers an article telling of the clergy being given passes for the month of November to the World's Fair. No ill feeling toward the clergy, but doesn't it seem a little unreasonable and petty that the teachers of the public schools have not any chance whatever to see the Fair are not considered in anyway. Many of them have subscribed to the Fair. They are spending their lives educating the children with a much smaller salary than the minister. Then, they are willing to take out their pupils, giving them a chance to get in for a dime—but the poor teacher must pay her half-dollar. A great many teachers would even have bought a ticket for $5, but they haven't the opportunity these short days to go to the Fair except Saturdays.

Some may say why didn't the teachers attend all summer? Please remember teachers' salaries stop in the summer. Many of them have to attend to other matters bringing in a revenue. Many did not have the money to go all summer to the Fair. As the Fair is a great education we hope the World's Fair management will accord some privileges toward the teacher of the St. Louis public schools. A ST. LOUISAN.

LOTHE.—Charlotte Corday was the young woman who assassinated the bloodthirsty French revolutionary leader, Marat. Books in Public Library will tell you all about her.

TEACHER.—We have not seen the "Gladiator" picture you mention. Certainly young women employed at the Fair as explainers should not be out chasing airships while visitors are seeking information.

COLORED MAN.—Colored men should certainly be allowed to buy food at the Fair. Some enterprising colored man should have a restaurant there that colored people could visit and be independent of the whites.

B. W.—Think no more of the young man if he has ceased to visit you after having asked you to marry him. You are well rid of him and you should be thankful that he does not come. Such a person, were you to marry him, would bring you only grief.

READER.—In the three days' fight at San Juan Hill and at El Caney 22 of our officers and 208 of our men were killed, 81 officers and 1203 men were wounded, and 79 were missing. Spanish loss, upwards of 1500 officers and men, killed and wounded.

Total $73,588.27.

LOVER OF THE P.-D.—The lock of red hair you send is not a bit too red. Keep it the color nature has given it. Many people with red hair are foolishly sensitive in regard to it. Really they should be proud of it. For sweating hands: Borax and salicylic acid, each one-half ounce; boric acid, 1 dram; diluted alcohol and glycerine, each 2 ounces. Rub on three times a day. We do not save such expressions as "I'm from Kansas—I can put it in your hand."

G. T. S.—Blackheads are an accumulation of dirt. Electricity is not used on dirt. Soap and water and friction with use of an emollient, are death to them. Bathe face at night with this lotion: Rosewater, pure alcohol and glycerine, 10 grains each; pulverized borax, 5 grains. After five minutes apply this mixture: Pure alcohol, 80 grains; green soap, 40 grains; wash off in the morning. Blackheads must be carefully forced out or there will be scars or further trouble with them.

J. McK.—The French band was said to have refused to play "The Watch on the Rhine" on German day, October 6. Mr. Paresi says he expected to play a regular concert program, and after he had played the American and English national airs he was called upon to play the German anthem. He was unprepared for it, and asked for time to procure the music. The slight delay that necessarily resulted started the rumor that he had refused to play the anthem. The band was composed of ninety-two pieces.

T. P.—Under the election laws of Missouri, a foreigner having declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States, or taken out his first papers, can vote after those papers are one year old, and he can vote on his first papers for four years, or until his papers are five years old, and no longer. He cannot vote on his first papers until they are one year old nor can he vote thereon after the paper is five years old. He must then go into a court of competent jurisdiction having common law jurisdiction and a seal and clerk, and take out his final papers.

H. T. GUNN.—Lifting power of your gasbag would depend on form you give it. A bag fifteen feet long and five feet in diameter at middle of length might have blunt ends or tapering ends. There would be a difference of several feet in the cubic contents. Treat it as a cylinder with two cones ton, which you can get at Public Library. Then allow 14 cubic feet to furnish lifting power for one pound, if pure hydrogen gas is used. With ordinary illuminating gas the lifting power is about one-third less.

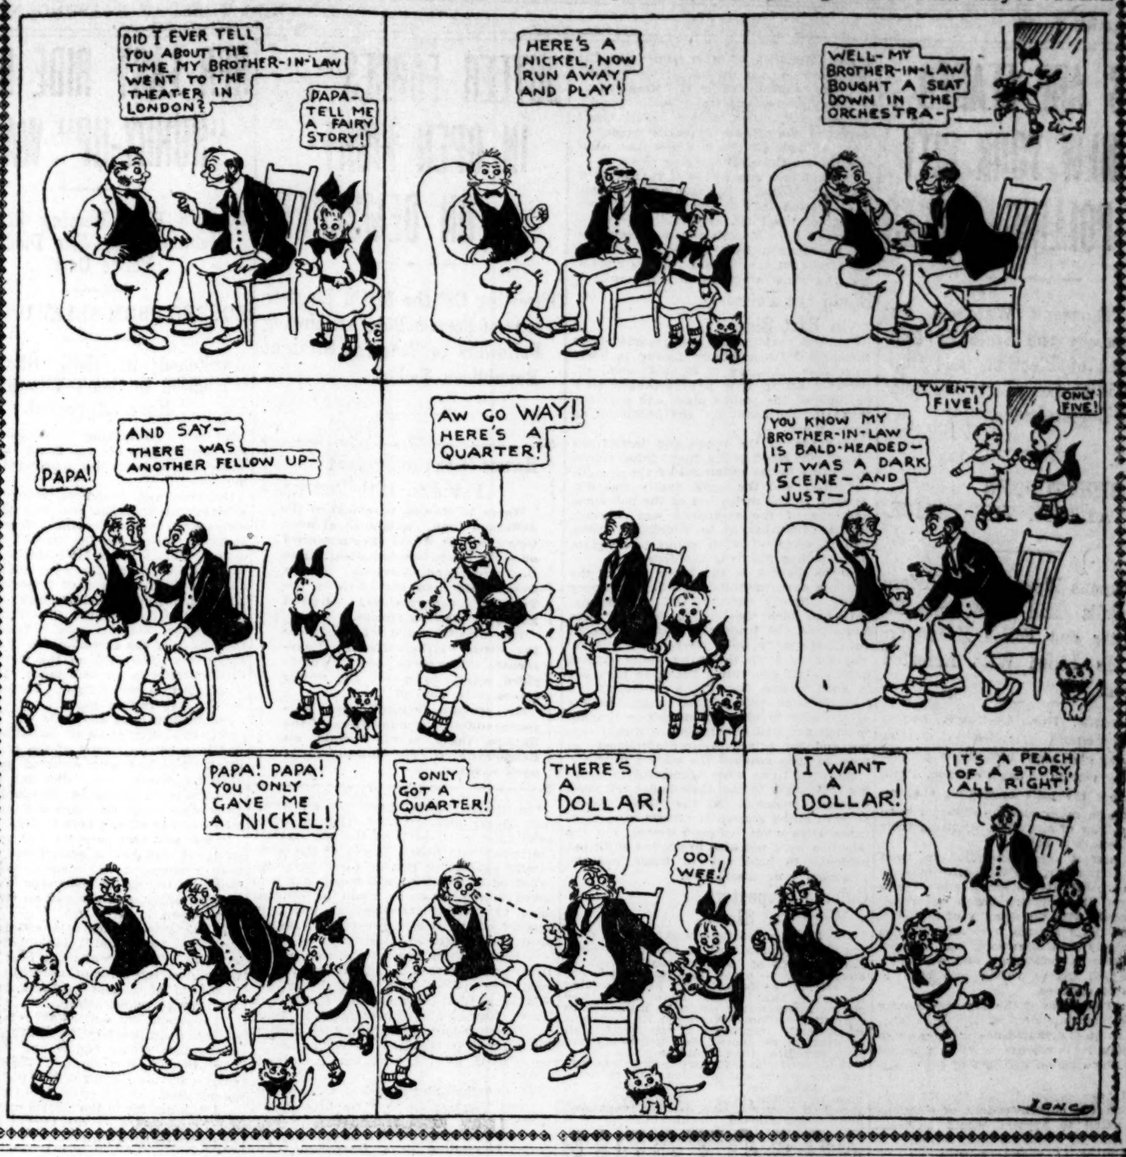

A. B.—T. E. L. writes that he wrote in his college days the following lines, under the title "My King:"

I said: "I'll find Him in yon palace hall.
For lo, they tell me that I seek a king—
The rugs are silken where his footsteps fall,
And 'round him glitters many a priceless thing!"

I found Him where the city hides her shame;
His friends, the outcast, beggar and the thief—
I knew Him for My King—His royal name,
A Man of Sorrows and a Friend to Grief.

NEW YORK WORLD EDITORIAL TODAY

THE SUPREME ISSUE.

Judge Parker and President Roosevelt have created, from the facts persistently presented by the World for more than three months, an issue that will not end with the closing of the polls today.

The purchase of elections on behalf of powerful financial interests that seek protection, privilege and immunity from the government is an evil that must be met and crushed if this republic is to survive. Whatever may be the result of the election, this issue will remain and take precedence of all others until it is settled, and settled rightly.

That even Theodore Roosevelt, with all his natural leaning toward clean politics, should not be able to realize the danger and the infamy of a system that permits corporations to finance political campaigns, with a well-grounded expectation of favors to come, is a startling illustration of the ravages of the disease.

THE SUPREME ISSUE.

No more campaign contributions from corporations.

No more secret contributions from anybody.

Enforced publicity for all gifts, large or small, made to political committees as well as to candidates.

Let us have a national corrupt practices act covering these points before the next presidential campaign begins.

And whether we get the law or not, let the next Democratic national committee act on these principles itself, and let the Republican committee refuse to act on them if it dares.

JAPAN AS A COLONIZER.

When Japan entered Formosa she found the coast at the mercy of pirates. The interior was ruled partly by the savage aborigines, partly by organized bands of outlaws and robbers, who plundered ships wrecked on the coast and murdered the crews who approached the island. While Formosa was in the possession of China, trouble with the United States and other countries was frequently caused by these murderous attacks on the crews of foreign ships. China was probably glad to get rid of the unruly island.

Owing to the lawless state of Formosa, it was not possible for Japan to organize at once a peaceful administration of the island, for peaceful administration had never been known in Formosa. In fact, the island had to be conquered inch by inch, and the savages had to be tamed before the country could be organized. The conquest of the island took a year; and on the 31st of March, 1896, it was placed under civil administration.

While the Japanese government has in no way tried to hurt the susceptibilities of the natives by meddling with their religion and their customs, it has given them tangible proof of the benefit of Japanese rule by improving in every respect the conditions of the people. In the first place, the law-abiding toilers are no longer terrorized and tyrannized over by robber bands, and enjoy freedom under a just government. In the second place much has been done for their bodily welfare.

The country used to suffer much from epidemic diseases, which were largely caused by the wretchedly bad water which the natives obtained from stagnant pools and contaminated streams. Consequently the Japanese set about to provide a supply of pure water. The total number of artesian wells that have been bored in Formosa is not available; but in the Taihoku district alone, where about one-tenth of the population is living, more than 300 wells have been sunk by the Japanese, and the country has become much healthier in consequence. In Taihoku itself, waterworks of considerable magnitude have been erected, and in several of the towns sewers and canals which hitherto were unknown to the inhabitants have been built. Further to improve the health and bodily well-being of the people, hospitals have been established.

Education being the basis and starting point of all progress, Japan has introduced her splendid educational system in Formosa. There are schools for the Japanese with 80 teachers and 2000 pupils, and there are 130 elementary schools for the natives with a teaching staff of 521 teachers, who are educating 18,149 children, and transforming them into civilized beings. However, Japan is not satisfied with providing elementary education for the natives, for it is her ambition to give to Formosa the best she has to give. Consequently Japan has established for the use of the natives a medical school, a Japanese language school and a school for training school teachers.

Understanding the fundamental requirements of Formosa, the Japanese started methodically upon roadmaking in many parts of the island, and according to a recent report of the United States consul more than 1000 miles of road have already been built.

At the same time, the Japanese government mapped out a comprehensive scheme of railways, on which it proposes to spend 28,800,000 yen, or almost £3,000,000, an amount which for a country like Japan sounds almost excessive. The piece of railway which the Japanese found in existence has already been thoroughly reconstructed, and a new line from Chinchiku to Takao was begun simultaneously from both termini with the greatest energy. Between 1897 and 1903, 95 miles of railway were laid, 37 stations were built and 210 freight cars and passenger wagons and 20 engines introduced.

During this period the number of passengers carried has grown fourfold and the quantity of goods transported tenfold. Besides light railways were introduced, of which 135 miles were laid within a few months. A further 52 miles of light railroads are about to be built. The post, telegraph and telephones have also been introduced with the greatest success.

SPOONING AND THE CLERGY

By Nixola Greeley-Smith, Granddaughter of Horace Greeley.

Written for the Post-Dispatch.

Nixola Greeley-Smith

The pastor of the Westchester Presbyterian Church has recently issued a proclamation against the spooning of lovers in a grove of maples adjoining the church, which from the number of lovesick couples that sought its sequestered shades has come to be known as Cupid's alley.

To the unbiased mind it would seem that lovers could select a better place for the various manifestations of tenderness generally classified as "spooning" than the immediate vicinity of the parsonage. Surely when under the soft influence of summer two youthful hearts are sighing for the knot there's no untying, a looming churchspire must suggest the immediate solemnization of the tie. And a clergyman with an eye to wedding fees would think twice before evicting the little god of love from his church's maple grove. Instead of frowning upon the lovers he would do everything he could to encourage them and might even allow himself an occasional stroll through the grove in his Sunday surplice that the wavering sentiments of the "spooners" might be crystallized into an immediate demand for his services.

The growing disinclination of young men and women to assume the burdens of matrimony has been a subject for earnest thought and fervid preaching by the clergy for a number of years. Yet when it comes to helping the course of true love to run smooth, at least one clergyman may be said to have failed.

It must be admitted that the vision of a spooning couple is not agreeable to any person in the full enjoyment of sanity. But the recollection of what we have been or the anticipation of what we may be should always soften the spectacle and incline our hearts to toleration if not to benevolence.

What are groves and lanes and moonlit plazas for unless for spooning. And does not spooning lead to thoughts of matrimony, and thoughts of matrimony to the clergyman? The hardened cynic, the disillusioned worldling, may be able to afford to sneer at the injudicious public exhibitions of youthful sentiment. But surely the clergyman should do everything in his power to help the good old Cupid and Hymen Limited along.

Instead of abolishing the maple grove every church should encourage the planting of trees in its vicinity that under their inviting shade "eyes may look love at eyes that speak again." And all go merry as a marriage bell.

SELFPITY—IT'S STULTIFYING EFFECTS

BY MRS. JOHN A. LOGAN.

ONE of the greatest afflictions to any person is that of self-pity. It begins by a surrender of one's pluck and moral courage in combating the "ills that flesh is heir to."

A majority of people are born under favorable skies. They have indulgent and loving parents, who do everything and secure every possible opportunity for their offspring, denying themselves, and allowing their children to bask in the sunshine of their indulgence.

By-the-bye these hopefuls arrive at the age when they should assume the responsibilities of manhood and womanhood. Untutored and undisciplined, they hesitate and avoid action as long as they can. Finally their parents or guardians, having run their race and finished their labors, pass to their reward, and their dependents are forced to take up something from which they expect to derive a living. Ignorant and inexperienced through their own laggardness and the overweening affection of those who had charge of them in their youth, they are absolutely without self-reliance, have no knowledge of human nature or confidence in themselves, and consequently blunder from the beginning.

Magnifying One's Ills.

As failures multiply they become discouraged and begin to pity themselves. They magnify every ill that attends them and fold their hands and brood over what they conclude is their predestined fate. They not unfrequently attribute their misfortune to the direct manifestation of divine displeasure toward them. They insist it is useless for them to try to succeed with everything, everybody, even deity, against them, when, as a matter of fact, they are and always have been the architects of their own fortunes. They have been endowed with all the elements necessary to achieve whatever their ambition prompts them to undertake. They fail to realize all their troubles are the legitimate results of their own indolence, want of alertness, lack of energy, extravagance of time and money, want of stability, of character and wise employment of their natural abilities. Self-examination and an honest inventory of their talents and opportunities, and a strict accounting as to whether they have been wisely invested and conscientiously improved would be far more profitable and fruitful of happiness than to indulge in self-pity. By such an examination and the inevitable discoveries in consequence it will be easy to arouse one's self to wiser, more judicious and greater heroic action.

All have their need in the race of life, and if one finds himself in the rear column he may be sure it is within his power to escape temporary misfortunes and join the van. It all lies with one's self; obstacles rise in every pathway, but to the self-reliant, courageous, energetic, indomitable, belongs the victory.

All the sympathy one needs will come from without—that from within should be suppressed by the greater virtues, self-reliance and moral courage. More persons than one have actually died from self-pity, because of lack of moral stamina sufficient to enable them to rise above "the stings and shots of outrageous fortune."

We must help ourselves, which is impossible if we cowardly content ourselves with sitting down and selfishly indulging in self-pity!

HUGE REFUSE PILE ENDANGERS LIVES

Smoldering Rubbish from Fair Grounds Racetrack the Pest of Neighborhood.

CAUSE DISEASE AND DISTRESS.

Soot, Ashes and Odors Cause Residents to Act When Authorities Fail to Remedy.

Citizens living near Red Bud and Farlin avenue and for many blocks thereabouts are seeking means to compel the St. Louis Fair Association to remove the gigantic pile of stable refuse which covers more than a half block of ground inside the northwest corner of the Fair Grounds stable lot.

The pile is at Kossuth and Red Bud avenues. Less than sixty feet north of the pile is the Pilgrim Baptist Church, colored.

The heap of refuse is about three hundred and fifty feet long and one hundred feet wide. It is about thirty feet high. The east end slopes to the ground, in order that wagons from the Fair Grounds stables may add their daily additions to the pile. This burning ghat for the straw and offal of the stables has been in existence for 13 years, a resident of the neighborhood states.

Its composition is as cosmopolitan as the tide of humanity which comes yearly to the race track. Wire and tinware, bottles and the hundred odds and ends, which the jockeys and stable hands discard, with bones and bits of meat, are mingled with the discarded straw bedding which forms the bulk of the heap. Even the faded flowers of the floral horseshoe, which the Derby winner proudly wore, find their bier in the pile.

Sunday, Oct. 23, the great straw pile took fire. Mrs. May Stock of 423 Red Bud avenue, opposite the stable yard, says she saw a man fire the pile. Fire companies were called and worked half the day and for two days in the week following to prevent the fire from spreading to cottages near the burning pile.

Fire Still Smolders.

The fire still is smoldering. It never has been extinguished, despite rain and the water thrown on it by fire engines.

The fire has added to the torments of the neighbors who live within six blocks of the burning heap. Smoke—the stifling, pungent smoke of burning straw and other stable refuse—assails them night and day. The smoke settles in their yards and houses. Combined with light ashes which are raised and carried hundreds of yards with every wind, it falls, a black pall, on everything not sealed as tight as a fruit jar.

Life in the shadow of this "artificial volcano" is hard. Children cannot play without ruining their frocks in the scum of ashes lying on the grass. Housewives cannot hang out their weekly wash in the yards as they formerly did.

But these are minor ills. Residents in the neighborhood are a unit in declaring that their health has been seriously, and some say dangerously affected by the mass of rubbish lying festering or burning within a stone's throw of their homes.

Mrs. Michael Sullivan, of 4291 Margaretta avenue, declares that the illness of her five-year-old daughter May, who is recovering from a three-weeks' attack of scarlet fever, was caused by the odors of the rubbish heap. She lives one block away, and despite her care the child would sometimes play near the pile.

Disease Due to Rubbish.

W. H. Thiemeyer of 4265 Kossuth avenue lives diagonally across the street from the pile. His 5-year-old son Harvey has suffered from scarlet fever for five weeks, and Hazel, aged 8 years, has been ill from the same disease for two weeks. Their illness, neighbors say, is directly attributable to the rubbish heap so near their home.

"It has greatly aggravated their sickness," Mrs. Thiemeyer said. "I have to keep all the windows closed in order to save the sick children from the dense smoke which blows in the house."

The absence of rain has increased the sufferings of residents on account of the neighborhood pest. Ashes are a foot deep on all portions of the pile which have been burned over, and as fine as face powder. The slightest wind is sufficient to set the ash cloud in motion. The only relief residents have is when the wind is not in their direction.

Despite energetic action on the part of sufferers they have so far failed in their efforts to have the nuisance abated by the city authorities.

Nearly a month ago A. J. Seewoster, Charles H. Sydnor, Harlan Walker, Mrs. Jacob Blattner, Mrs. James Overy of the 4200 block on Farlin avenue and Mrs. Michael Sullivan and Mrs. Tim Sullivan of 4206A Margaretta avenue went before the board of health and entered formal complaint. Dr. Simon gave them a second hearing, a week after their first visit, and he sent inspectors to view the scene. But the refuse pile has continued to smoke and burn and daily fresh straw is added to the pile.

A week ago a police summons was secured against the Fair association and the case is set for trial Tuesday, Nov. 8, in Dayton street police court.

The First Ward Improvement Association, a club recently formed by men in the First ward living near the west end of the Fair Grounds, has tackled the question, but so far it has failed to have the refuse removed. An attorney has been engaged to prosecute the matter in court and members of the club declare that they will provide necessary money to fight the case.

NO REPLY FROM COMMISSION.

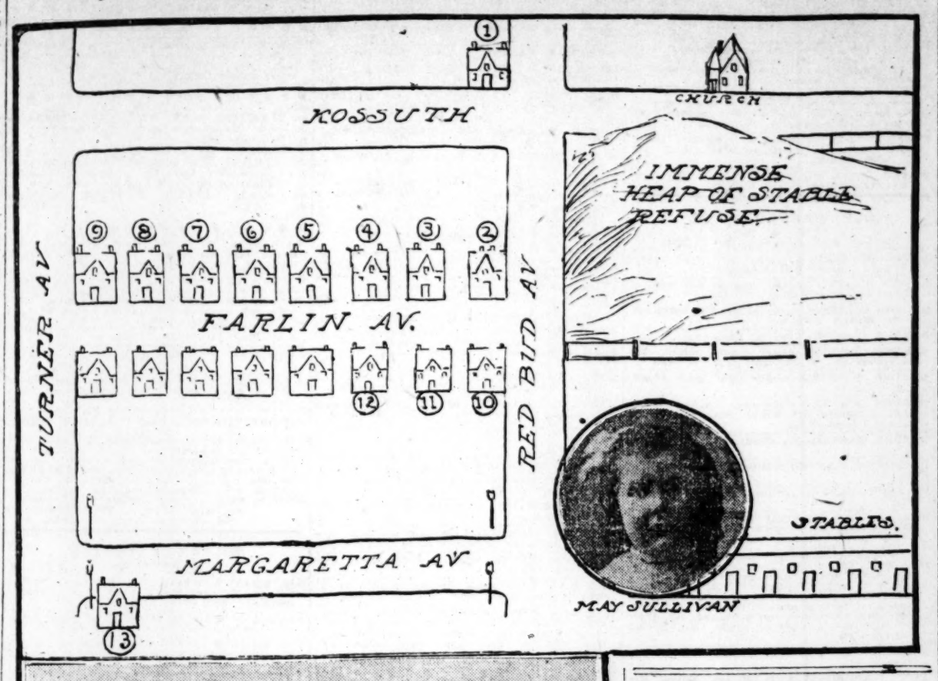

No reply has come to the National World's Fair commission's request, sent to the Exposition company, for calling together the arbitration board to determine whether the commission has the right to review the work of the juries of awards.

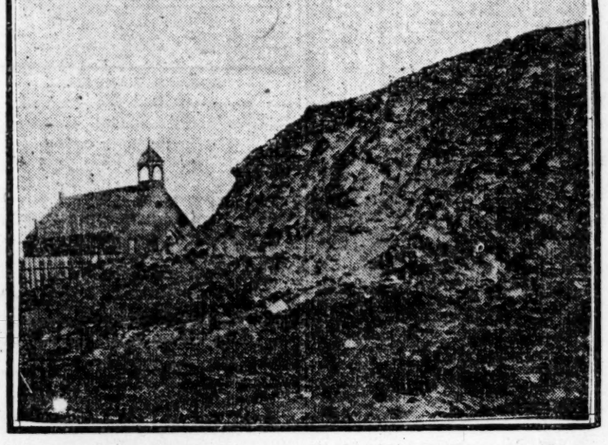

The two commission members on the board are John M. Allen and John M. Thurston. Mr. Allen is here and Mr. Thurston will be here Tuesday night.

Secretary Stevens said Tuesday that the request had been received, but action had not been taken on it. He thought it possible that the delay was due to the peculiar wording of the request, which was to the effect that the commission wanted the arbitration board called together unless the question was settled to the satisfaction of the commission. Mr. Stevens said he did not know whether the commission was satisfied or not.

JAPANESE NEED TWO MOUNTAINS

When They Capture Antse and Etse They Will Have Possession of Port Arthur.

TOKIO, Nov. 8.—Unofficial news received from Port Arthur since Saturday's report of the progress made by the besiegers indicates that the Japanese operations are proceeding satisfactorily, though slowly. Limestone formations and rocky ground interfere with the sapping.

It is now considered that the capture of Rihlung Mountain and East Kekwan Mountain without Antse and Etse Mountains is not sufficient to force the Russians to abandon the city proper.

Many Arrests at Huntington.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Nov. 8.—The weather is cool and clear, and indications point to one of the heaviest votes ever polled here. Great interest is manifested. Over 75 arrests were made by 9 o'clock.

TWO ELECTION JUDGES KILLED; OTHERS INJURED

Sheriff BGell's Deputies at Cripple Creek Use Their Guns When Ordered Out of Polling Place and Resisting Judges Go to Jail.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., Nov. 8.—Two election judges were killed in this district today, a Peabody deputy sheriff was mortally wounded, and a number of Democratic judges were beaten and thrown into jail.

Ike Idelbolt and Chris Miller, judges at Goldfield, were shot down by one of Sheriff Bell's deputies. They had ordered the deputy out of the polling place. He refused to go, and, turning upon the judges, shot and killed them.

CHANGE OF POLLS COST VOTES.

Suburban Residents Complain Over New Voting Place.

Many residents of Glendale, St. Louis County, were making complaint Tuesday morning that they would lose their votes as the result of changing the polling place in the village.

Heretofore the polls have been located in the little station house of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, and business men, who spent the day in St. Louis, would jump from the train, cast their ballot and run back while the train waited.

Tuesday morning, however, as they jumped off they found the polls removed to Sunnyside, a station on the Frisco tracks some distance away. Many did not know the location of the new station and came on to St. Louis. Unless they return during the day, they will lose their votes.

SECRECY TO HIDE ELECT OF THE FAIR

Board of Lady Managers Favors "75" With Invitations to Semi-Official Function.

After Saturday night it will be known who are the upper 75 of the World's Fair and of St. Louis.

That is, it will be known to the 75. The other 700,000 will not be able to find one unless they stand at the door of the house of the Board of Lady Managers and watch the 75 go in and come out, or peep in at the windows.

Members of the Board of Lady Managers, taking compassion on President Francis, who has not eaten more than 723 dinners since the beginning of the Fair, are getting some victuals together for the president to eat next Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Realizing that it is not all of life to eat, 75 "invites" have been sent out so that, after the president has satisfied his hunger, he can have a sociable time.

Contrary to custom, the Lady Managers have not made known who have been invited. More than that, those who have been invited have been requested to keep the fact a secret.

The presumed reason is that on account of the limited number of invitations the members of the board are afraid of a deluge of reproaches from those who were invited. The invitations have been out three days.

It is understood that it is the purpose to withhold the list of guests even after the dinner.

The list at present is locked in Mrs. Manning's desk, and the desk is locked in the house of the Board of Lady Managers.

President Francis is especially honored by the fact that special invitations have been engraved for the occasion. Heretofore all invitations have been taken from stock and the blanks filled in with ink.

The explanation given of the withholding of the list is that the dinner is to be only semi-official.

The president is due to eat another dinner the same night at the New York building, as the guest of the Association of Exhibitors.

ELECTION JUDGE BECK IN TROUBLE

Man Exonerated of Murder in Scheel Tragedy Arrested at Same Polling Place.

Oliver J. Beck, who was Republican election judge in the Ninth precinct of the Fourth ward on the first day of registration, but was supplanted by his fellow-officials after the fight during which Fred E. Scheel, a young law student, was killed, September 19, got into more trouble Tuesday.

The finish came when he slapped Edward Sweeney, a Democratic clerk, and Sweeney knocked him down. Beck sustained a scalp wound, which was dressed at the City Dispensary. Then he asked for police protection while he voted, promising to go home and remain there all day. His request was granted.

According to statements made to the police by both Republican and Democratic election officials, Beck entered the polling place of the precinct, at 501 North Fourteenth street, nearly an hour after the opening of the polls and demanded that he be allowed to serve as judge. A Republican named Weekley, who was put in Beck's place after the Scheel tragedy, was acting as judge, and Beck's demand was refused.

It is stated that Beck promptly started a quarrel and his fight with Sweeney followed in short order.

Henry Westerman, Republican committeeman for the ward, says he also was struck by Sweeney, but he has made no complaint to the police, and Lieut. Kenna and Sergt. Meehan, who investigated the matter, report that they heard nothing of Westerman being involved.

Beck was arrested by Detective Joseph Wilson and taken to the Four Courts. Wilson says Beck made a movement as though to draw a revolver, but none was found on him. Westerman, a Policeman Andrew Gordon thrust a big revolver against Beck's stomach during the trouble in the polling place, but his declaration was not supported by the police or the election officials.

Beck came into political prominence when he challenged alleged Democratic "Indians" who sought to register as residents of the Jefferson Hotel, Sept. 19, the first day of registration. There was a fight in the polling place, and afterward a revolver battle in the street. During this battle a stray bullet struck Scheel, who was walking along the street, inflicting a mortal wound. Beck was arrested, but denied that he fled the shot which struck Scheel.

Weary Waiting on the Shakhe.

TOKIO, Nov. 8.—Reports from the Shakhe river state that both armies are constantly strengthening their positions along the river and otherwise busily preparing for another great battle. The scouts are constantly in touch and frequent outpost skirmishes occur, but there is no likelihood of a general engagement for the present.

Reinforcements of Russian troops, guns and supplies are constantly arriving at the front, filling the gaps caused by the crushing losses at the battle of Shakhe river.

Boy Crushed by Cars.

Henry Ruby, a Western Union messenger boy is at his home, 2811 Iowa street, with his collar bone broken and many cuts about his head and body from being struck by a street car at Jefferson avenue and Chippewa street Monday. He was riding on the rear step of one car when another crashed into it, pinning him between the two. He was treated at the South Side Dispensary and taken home in an ambulance. He will recover.

JUDGE RYAN STOPS FRAUDULENT VOTE

Steps Out of Line to Arrest Young Man Who Gave Chicago as Home.

An attempt at fraudulent voting on the part of a young man who admitted that Chicago and not St. Louis was his home, was defeated in the Seventeenth precinct of the Twenty-eighth ward Tuesday by Judge O'Neill Ryan and Attorney Joseph W. Wright.

The man gave his name as Robert Hill and his age as 24. He was registered from the Napoleon Bonaparte Hotel, at De Baliviere and Kingsbury boulevards.

As he appeared at the polls at 5900 Delmar boulevard he was met by Attorney Wright, who asked him if he had registered. He replied that he had. Upon being pressed for his address he admitted that he did not live in St. Louis, but was here during the registration period in September.

Judge O'Neill Ryan was in the line of voters and heard the conversation. The young man then entered the line and walked into the polling place.

"That young man doesn't live here," said Judge Ryan. "He has no authority to vote in St. Louis." Attorney Wright challenged the vote and the man was disqualified. Then Judge Ryan left the line, and exercising his authority as a citizen, arrested the offender.

Hill stated that he came back to St. Louis only a few days ago and that he intended to vote the Republican ticket.

He admitted that he did not live at the hotel from which he had registered and had no place of abode in St. Louis. He pleaded not to be arrested, and after a lecture Judge Ryan permitted him to go.

Judge Ryan then rejoined the line and cast his vote.

The Queen of Beauty With Us Again!

From the Chicago Herald.

"Not even Gabriel's trumpet could shatter the cerements of the grave so completely and so quickly as Mme. Yale with her announcement of the search for beauty achieved. When Mme. Yale stepped upon the stage she presented a picture of girlish loveliness. Her contours were round and firm and full; the bloom upon her cheek was like the color that lurks behind the satin skin of a cherry, and her figure was as supple and graceful as one might have imagined Alfaretta's to have been when she roamed the banks of the bright Juniata. All success to this little woman's work, say I, if by her efforts she is going to redeem her sex from the bondage to which tight lacing, infrequent and insufficient bathing and disregard of all rules of hygiene have brought her."—"Amber."

Mme. Yale
To Lecture on
Beauty and Physical Culture.

Ladies: You are duly notified that Mme. Yale, the Expert Beauty Scientist, of universal fame, will give one of her Celebrated "Beauty Lecture" Entertainments next Friday, Nov. 11, at 2:30 p. m., at the Century Theater. You are cordially invited to attend. Every woman with the commendable desire to look her best and profit by the rich advantages derived from having a pleasing personality should not fail to be there. The beautiful example Mme. Yale presents is delightfully inspiring and genuinely practical. Have you ever been to a "Mme. Yale Beauty Lecture?" If so, there is no need of persuasion to go again, for nothing short of impossibilities ever keeps away those who have once attended. If, on the other hand, you have never been, do not miss this one; go by all means; it will do you good. Learn from the most beautiful and most youthful woman of the age the scientific "Beauty Secrets" that have made her the best known woman in the world.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.

The Physical Culture part of Mme. Yale's entertainment is simply wonderful. Such perfection of figure, grace of gesture, queenly poise, and poetry of motion has never been seen elsewhere.

Synopsis of Mme. Yale's Lecture.

"LOUISIANA" HAS PRETTY ROMANCE

One of the Dainty Dancers Will Wed a Member of the Orchestra.

For twenty-three weeks, as she sang the sweet music and danced the dainty dances in "Louisiana" out at Delmar and up at Music Hall, pretty little Katie Belle Tucker has been looking over the footlights at a handsome face. Night after night as she appeared among the Pacahontas maidens and in the pony ballet she has been making goo goo eyes, and the hearts of all the chappies in the front rows have beat pitty-pat, while each one took to himself the glances that were cast over the water that forms the foreground of the "Louisiana" picture.

But it was at none of these that the little dancer was looking. It was at the young man who plays the cornet in the orchestra, and last week it developed that all during the long engagement a pretty little romance was being enacted under the very eyes of the 400,000 people who have witnessed the production. Yesterday the announcement was made that on Nov. 15 Miss Tucker, whose home is at 122 North Market street, will be married to Mr. John Bainbridge of San Francisco.

Katie Belle Tucker is one of the prettiest of the "Louisiana" girls. It might almost be said that she is the prettiest were it not for the fact that there are so many pretty ones that it is hard to make a choice. For the benefit of those who do not know the pony ballet by name, be it known that little Miss Tucker is the bright-eyed girl whose jet black braids have created so much attention during "Louisiana's" long run. This is only her second engagement on the stage, and contrary to all the traditions, this is her first romance. And so it came as something of a surprise when she called all of the ponies into her dressing room the other night and in stage whisper announced that she was to be married on the 15th, and invited them all to the wedding.

Mr. Bainbridge, while a young man, is a cornetist of considerable reputation. All the young men in the company are congratulating him upon his good luck. Every member of the company is now taking a personal interest in the approaching marriage, which is likely to develop into a novel affair if the singers have their way.

CITIZENS FOILED CRACKSMEN

Two Men Wearing Yellow Sweaters Were Detected in Effort to Rob Bank.

DES MOINES, Io., Nov. 7.—Two men wearing yellow sweaters attempted to blow up the safe of the Savings Bank at Walford, Io., near Iowa City.

They were driven off by citizens and made their escape in a buggy, leaving behind them a complete set of burglars' tools.

Cartoonist Edgren Thinks the Britt-Corbett Go Will Be Rather Hectic

BRITT-CORBETT GO TO BE BEST EVER

Both Boys Are Grit All Through and Fight Will Be of Whirlwind Variety.

NO CHANCE FOR A DECISION.

Referee Won't Be Called Upon to Decide on Points as Knockout Is a Certainty.

BY ROBERT EDGREN.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—There is no yellow streak in "Young Corbett." For that reason Britt and "Corbett" will be better matched than Britt and Gans.

Jimmy Britt is a fighter without fear. He never has been whipped. Partly for that reason, and partly because he inherits good, red fighting blood, Britt has no feeling of awe for any man he may meet.

"Young Corbett," so far as courage and self-confidence are concerned, is the exact duplicate of Britt. He has been beaten more than once during his fighting career. "Kid" Broad knocked him out, for that matter. But his egotism never suffered a setback. He is like the savages that once inhabited old Albion, which is now known as England.

Julius Cesar, the unwhipped general of ancient Rome, complained of the Britons that they never did know when they were beaten, and so kept on fighting just as aggressively when, according to all precedent of warfare, they should have been either surrendering or skedaddling over the hills.

There is a lot of the Briton in "Corbett." He believes today—even after seeing Britt batter the once great Joe Gans about until he forgot ringmanship and everything else in the desire to escape—that he actually was robbed of a decision last December.

Last Battle Was One of Greatest.

That last fight between Britt and "Corbett" was one of the greatest ever seen in a Queensberry ring. It lasted 20 rounds, and it developed every trick, every fighting artifice, that these true little ring generals were master of. Britt is a clever fighter. "Corbett" is a clever fighter—a trifle more of a slugger and a trifle less of a boxer than Britt.

During every moment of this battle it seemed to the spectators that "Corbett" was about to land a knockout. But he did not land it. Britt, absolutely as tireless as a steel spring, and as aggressive as a bulldog, was right on top of the little Denverite during every second of the time. Britt never took a back step. "Corbett," tiring sooner, was frequently forced to give ground before the fury of his attack.

Toward the end of the battle "Corbett" now and then became so arm and leg weary that his hands dropped to his sides, and at the bell he reeled to his corner. But every time he came out again full of strength and speed. His recuperative powers were marvelous, and had Britt been anything but entirely clear grit he must have become discouraged—and have lost the fight.

I do not believe that "Young Corbett's" former defeat by Britt will take away any of his courage. He will go into the fight full of the dogged determination to win that he showed in the first battle with Terry McGovern.

Britt will have all of the confidence of his former victory over "Corbett" and of his recent practical victory over Gans.

There will be no decision in this coming fight between "Corbett" and Britt. The fight will end before the twentieth round.

HEDGES DENIES SALE OF BROWNS

President of Local Americans Declares He Has No Intention of Giving Up Franchise.

President Robert L. Hedges of the Browns arrived in St. Louis Tuesday from a trip through Oklahoma and Indian territories.

Mr. Hedges is enthusiastic over the prospect for the new Browns next spring and denies that he has even considered selling the club.

"If there is any report to the effect that the Browns will be sold, or that there have even been any negotiations to that end, there is absolutely nothing in it. The Browns made money last season, and if there is anything in dope they should make more next summer. I have no intention of letting go of the franchise though my other business interests take a great deal of my time."

NEW TEAMS WILL KICK IN STADIUM

Association Football League Organized and Will Enter in Olympian Games.

At least five amateur teams will compete in the coming Olympic association football championships at the World's Fair.

At a meeting Monday night at Christian Brothers' College the Amateur Association Football League was organized and all players were registered in the A. A. U. to make them eligible for the Olympic championships, which will be played November 16, 17 and 18.

Four clubs, the C. B. C's., the St. Roses, the St. Anns and the St. Alphonsuses, were admitted to membership in the league. The Visitations also applied for membership, but as the number of clubs was limited to four, they were denied. They will, however, enter the Olympic championships.

The league organized last night was formerly known as the Parish League. The officers elected last night are: Brother Eliszar of C. B. C., president and treasurer; John McMahon, secretary.

The regular schedule of the league will open Sunday on C. B. C. campus with a double-header, the St. Roses meeting the St. Alphonsuses and the C. B. C's. lining up against the St. Anns.

HARVARD HAS A HARD PRACTICE

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 8.—The practice on Soldiers' field this afternoon was so snappy and scrappy that the men overshot the mark and began to play a furious sort of football that resulted in anything but good team play on the part of the varsity.

The varsity had two teams lined up against them, as is now the custom on Soldiers' field, the regular second team and a team of subs. In 25 minutes of play the varsity failed to score, but at all times had its opponents safe. Pruyn, who has heretofore been playing at quarterback on the second team, was tried at left end on the varsity and made a good impression.

RESULTS AT AQUEDUCT.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

AQUEDUCT RACETRACK, N. Y., Nov. 8.—Weather clear; track fast. Results:

First race, six furlongs—King Pepper 101 (Travers), 1 to 1, first; Old England 105 (Crimmins), 4 to 1, second; Right and True 108 (Olandt), 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:16.

Second race, one mile—High Wind 110 (Gannon), 1 to 1, first; Crocket 107 (H[illegible]), 3 to 1, second; Arletta 107 (Crim[illegible]), 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:43.

FOUR BADGERS BEST PLAYERS

Yost, Michigan's Great Coach, Picks Four Wisconsin Men as Best Men in West.

ANNARBOR, Nov. 8.—E. J. Vanderboom, Dick Remp, Capt. I. J. Bush and Wilson Bertke of the Wisconsin varsity eleven may well feel proud, for no less an authority that Yost, the great Michigan football coach, said in a recent interview that he considered them among the greatest players in the West.

Capt. F. H. Bush did some wonderful work during the Wisconsin-Michigan game at Madison. He played right end like a Hinckey and on more than one occasion his work prevented Michigan backs from gaining. He has played left end on the Badger team for three years.

Vanderbooom is another three-year man on the Wisconsin varsity. It is doubtful if, barring Heston, he has a superior in the intercollegiate world. His offensive work in the recent contest at Madison was spectacular.

Wilson Bertke was the man who was always Johnny-on-the-spot. He was down the field like a bullet on punts, and generally downed Norcross in his tracks as he caught the ball. He played tackle; last year he was chosen for the all-western team. His play was the sensational feature of the Badgers' work against Michigan.

Dick Remp is almost sure to be drawn for the center man of the all-western team, although Capt. Moss Strathern of Minnesota will be a factor. Remp played a magnificent game against Michigan in the face of odds.

DELANEY DRILLING ELEVEN IN SECRET

Strong Efforts Will Be Made to Defeat Tigers in Saturday's Game—Washington Squad Taking It Easy—C. B. C. Hard at Work.

Secret practice was the program Monday afternoon at Sportman's Park, where the St. Louis University squad held forth. For the first time this year, barred gates confronted the casual visitor and he was told that no outsider might listen to a rehearsal of the plans which Coach Delaney is preparing to ensnare the Tigers next Saturday at Columbia.

The team will work in secret for the remainder of the week, as it is Delaney's intention to devote the entire time to perfecting the signal and formation work of the team. No scrimmage work will be done, as the men are rugged and in good condition. They need only a few days of drilling in the formations to smooth out the rough places and put them on edge.

Coach Delaney was forced to change his line-up yesterday because Eddie Peehman appeared with a bad ankle and probably will not be able to play Saturday. Peehman twisted his foot in the Carbondale game and it has been troubling him ever since.

Irwin was shifted to right half from tackle and Axline, sub-center, was moved over to the tackle position. This arrangement will not weaken the backfield materially, but the line, which has been the team's stronghold, will be a little less strong. Axline is a strong, aggressive player who has made good at center, but he cannot play the tackle position like the veteran Irwin.

The loss of Peehman will deprive the team of its fastest back, the only one who has done effective end-running this year. The other backs have been used entirely on line bucks and Irwin is another heavy player who will do star work against the line, but who is too slow for end runs.

Dingman also was slightly battered in the Carbondale game, but the big tackle was out for practice yesterday and will be in fine shape by the time the team races Missouri. Quarterback Howe, who has been under the weather for some time, is rounding to form, and he will be relied upon to do the punting and also score at least one drop kick for his team. In practice yesterday he put the ball over the bar with promising regularity.

Coach Delaney understands that his team will have to be in good condition for the Tiger game, as McLean's men will work hard this week to prevent a repetition of the Washington defeat. While he is not without confidence in his team, the coach is by no means boastful of the outcome. He says the team will go to Columbia prepared to fight for the last inch and if Missouri is not stronger than it was last Saturday, St. Louis will bring home a victory.

League Park, the training ground of the Washington University squad, was "dark" Monday afternoon. Coach Boynton ordered a lay-off as a reward for the hard work and victory in the Missouri game and most of the players spent the afternoon at the W. U. Club with Boynton, who devoted some time to individual talks, correcting some faults and planning against others.

The team will do light work Tuesday, but regular practice will not be resumed until Wednesday. The coach says he has the men on the proper edge at present and he will take no chances on having them overtrained for the Kansas game next Saturday. This game is considered harder than the Missouri contest, and the coach will put forth every effort to make a favorable showing against the Jayhawkers. He fully realizes the glory that would attach to a double victory over Missouri and Kansas.

There was no rest or play for the C. B. C. squad Monday afternoon. Coach Wilbur put the team through one of the hardest practices of the year, and any one who has watched the big coach drive his men will readily understand what that means.

After ordering the squad around the track for two laps, Wilbur lined up his men against the Manual team, which began practice on the C. B. C. campus yesterday. Following 25 minutes of hard scrimmage work, the team was put through a half-hour of signal practice, and it was dark when the men were allowed to seek the dressing rooms.

The teams lined up and C. B. C. kicked off to Manual. For almost half an hour Manual was allowed possession of the ball. Though the team made its distance but twice, it finally managed to score a touchdown on the college team after 20 minutes of continuous offensive play. An idea of the C. B. C. defense may be obtained from the fact that Manual required seven or eight downs to get the oval over from the five-yard line.

The Training School team was strengthened by Jimmy Riordan, the old C. B. C. fullback. Wilbur was after it men every minute and it went hard with the linesman who neglected to "go in low" or "follow that ball" in obedience to the coach's command. The strict discipline under which the squad is held was a noticeable feature of the work. In this discipline lies the secret of the team's success thus far.

The college team will go to Rolla, Mo., Saturday to play the Miners, and though Coach Wilbur realizes that this will be the strongest and heaviest he has yet been called upon to meet, he says his team will win.

MELLODY-FUREY BOUT CANCELED

"Honey" Wires Withdrawal and Promotor Haughton Gets Substitute for Club Match.

Promoter Haughton of the West End Club announced Tuesday morning that Dick Fitzpatrick will be substituted for Honey Mellody in the fight with Barney Furey at the West End Club this week.

After making his own weight, terms and conditions, which were accepted by Promoter Haughton last week, Mellody wired yesterday that he had decided not to keep the date. He gave no reason, but merely called the show off.

Mellody has a hard fight with Buddy Ryan in Chicago next week and it is probable that he did not want to try beating two hard men in one week. It is also understood that he wished to name the referee, which Promoter Haughton would not allow.

The explanation has been offered that Mellody is showing traces of fickless plumage, but in view of his record this is not probable. But he seems to be working a system of making as many engagements as possible and keeping those which give him the greatest financial recompense for the smallest amount of trouble. Mellody is directly in line for the welterweight championship, but he is beginning rather early to take diberties with his "reputation."

Dick Fitzpatrick of Chicago, his substitute, is a fighter with considerable of a record for high-class milling in Chicago and elsewhere. Last Saturday night he tied up with Mellody in a six-round contest and fought him a whirlwind battle to a draw. It was a fast, hard fight and at the close the two men had milled each other to a standstill.

Promoter Haughton has not yet announced the successor of Referee Harry Sharpe, whose ill health compelled him to go to the coast for the winter. It is rumored that Paul McSweeney, one of the best all-around athletes in the city, will take his place. McSweeney has been an amateur boxer of considerable reputation and has recently been a prominent figure in local association football.

Says Robbers Got $81.

M. T. Castleman of 509 Washington avenue, reported to the police of Central district early Tuesday morning that he was robbed of $81 near his home by two men. Castleman says the men jumped from the shadow of a building and grabbed him by the neck, throwing him to the ground. One of them almost choked him while the other went through his pockets. The robbers then made their escape.

WHISKY TRUST DEFIES PEORIA BOARD OF TRADE

Reduces the Basic Price to $1.23 a Gallon Despite Refusal of Permission to Post Prices—Market Badly Demoralized.

PEORIA, Ill., Nov. 8.—The whisky market is demoralized, as a result of the war between the independents and the trust. Despite the action of the independents yesterday in declaring $1.24 as a bed-rock basing price for finished goods, the trust is offering and selling thousands of barrels at $1.23.

The refusal of the board of trade authorities to allow the trust to post the price at $1.23 forced the trust to take action to protect itself and 10,000 postal cards were sent out notifying the trade that the trust houses all over the United States would fill all orders on a basis of $1.23. The action of the Cincinnati board of trade in refusing to allow $1.23 to be posted was merely following out the line of action inaugurated by the independents in this city. The refusal of the Peoria board has created some feeling, but the majority of the members are friendly to the independents.

From trust headquarters in this city this morning the statement was authorized that all orders, no matter how large, would be filled at once at the low price.

The influence of orders for the past few days has been immense and the reserve stocks are being rapidly depleted. Lower prices are predicted by those on the inside.

NO CASE SHOWN BY GOVERNMENT AGAINST PRIEST

Rev. Father T. J. Aylward Will Be Discharged Unless Federal Officials Bring Speedy Proof of Naturalization Fraud Charges.

United States Commissioner James R. Gray, before whom the case of the Rev. Father Thomas J. Aylward is set for a hearing Wednesday morning, said in the hearing of several persons Monday afternoon that he would discharge the accused priest if the government does not produce more evidence against him that it now appears to have.

Father Aylward, whose arrest by United States deputy marshals Monday afternoon caused a sensation in political circles, is charged with having registered more than a month ago on naturalization papers fraudulently procured.

Father Aylward's naturalization papers, by which he says he will establish his innocence, were not found in his first search for them. The Federal officials admit that the absence of Father Aylward's name from the naturalization records of the St. Louis Court of Appeals, which occasioned the issuance of a warrant, may be due to a clerical error in that court. Bert D. Nortoni, assistant United States district attorney, takes this view of the case.

Father Aylward is assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic church, Sixth and Biddle streets, of which the Rev. Fr. Timothy J. Dempsey is pastor. His arrest Monday afternoon, on the eve of probably the most important election St. Louis has ever known, was a startling climax to the local campaign.

He was arrested on a warrant issued by Commissioner Gray at the instance of Horace L. Dyer, assistant United States district attorney, and son of District Attorney D. P. Dyer. At the same time warrants of a similar nature were issued against several others. Among them were Mark Lavin, a policeman, of 6169 Suburban avenue, Israel Finkman of 1116 North Eighth street and Joseph Gustin of 612 South Third street.

The names of the men for whom warrants were issued were not made public at once, but the warrants were placed in the hands of deputy United States marshals and their identity became known when they were taken prisoners, to the Federal building.

Lavin, Gustin and Finkman were released later in the afternoon on bonds of $500 each, after their alleged fraudulent realization papers had been confiscated by the government.

Father Aylward was released without being required to give bond, although Festus J. Wade appeared ready to furnish bond in any amount. He reported to Commissioner Gray, after a hurried search of the parochial residence, that he was unable to find his naturalization papers.

Mr. Dyer, at whose instance the warrant against Father Aylward was issued, says he did not know until after the arrest that Thomas J. Aylward was a Catholic priest.

The arrest of Father Aylward appears to have been an unexpected development of a carefully-planned feature of the local Republican campaign. With knowledge of the fact that a number of fraudulent naturalization papers had been issued in 1900 with the name of Clerk John H. Murphy forged thereto, the Republican managers decided to cause the arrest of any persons whom they found to have registered for to-day's election on these papers. Last week four men were arrested by the Federal authorities on this charge.

But the Republican managers decided that it would be effective to cause the arrest of a large number of others just before election day. Last Saturday two men who said they were employed by the Republican state committee, visited the election commissioners' office and copied, among other lists, the names of all the voters in the Third precinct of the Third ward.

Republican clerks in that ward, it seems, had made memoranda on registration days of persons who had registered on papers signed by Clerk Murphy of the Court of Appeals.

Finding that these names still appeared on the registration lists and finding further that they did not appear on the records of the Court of Appeals, the names were transmitted to Mr. Dyer, who at once caused warrants to issue against them.

No attempt was made apparently to ascertain the identity of Father Aylward, whose name came in the list. He was described in the warrant simply as Thomas J. Aylward of 1207 North Sixth street.

Father Aylward was dazed when Deputy Marshal Wild notified him that he was under arrest and directed him to go with him to the Federal building. Father Dempsey, rector of the parish, was indignant. He declared the arrest an outrage.

Father Aylward received his naturalization papers October 15, 1901. He received them, he says, at the Court of Appeals, and says that if they were not made out in strict conformity with law he has no knowledge of the fact.

September 20 Father Aylward registered for today's election. That was forty-eight days ago, and in the interim Father Aylward received no intimation that the correctness of his naturalization papers or his right to register thereon would be questioned.

Father Aylward is 26 years old. He was born in Ireland, and has been in St. Louis nine years. While a student at Kenrick Seminary he spent his vacations with Father Dempsey at St. Patrick's parochial residence, and after his ordination, two years ago, was appointed Father Dempsey's assistant.

Both Father Dempsey and Archbishop Glennon, on whom the young priest called Monday night, express their confidence in Father Aylward's honor and integrity.

Archbishop Glennon said Monday night that he believes Father Aylward guilty of no wrong.

"It may be," the archbishop said, "that an error has been made or an illegal act committed in the drawing up of his naturalization papers. Of that I know nothing. But I do believe that, so far as he is concerned, no wrong has been committed."

MISSED TRAIN AND HER VOTE.

President of Woman's Federation Won't Appear at the Polls.

Because the train on which she arrived in St. Louis was 20 minutes late, Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, president of the general federation of women's clubs, missed her train for Denver and consequently will lose her vote.

Mrs. Decker has been traveling in many states attending conventions of women's clubs. All the time she expected to be at home to vote, but she was prevailed upon to spend one day longer in South Carolina than she had planned. Even then she expected to reach home in time to cast her ballot. But railroads are uncertain and Mrs. Decker missed her connection. She says there is no use trying to get [illegible] to pair with her by telegraph, as [illegible] Colorado woman would intentionally [illegible] her vote.
